

2 CENTS PAY NO MORE

Chicago Daily Tribune

FINAL EDITION

VOLUME LXXX.—NO. 45. C.

[COPYRIGHT: 1921.
BY THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1921.—26 PAGES. THIS PAPER CONSISTS OF TWO SECTIONS—SECTION ONE.

** PRICE TWO CENTS IN CHICAGO AND SUBURBS. ELSEWHERE THREE CENTS.

PEEPING TOM SHOT; MAY DIE

HUGHES MEETS HIS NEW AID; CABINET GROWS

SCHWILL MONEY ORDERS TRACED; NAB STAMP MAN
Safeblower Hunted as $10,000 Thief.

Quick solution of the $10,000 American Express money order theft mystery, which caused the arrest in New York of Julius Schwill, wealthy Chicago manufacturer, was promised last night by the police.

Stamp Dealer Seized.

The trail led first to the office of Casper Staub, dealer in foreign stamps and securities, in the Marquette building. Taken into custody, he confessed he had given Mr. Schwill $350 worth of express checks in payment for a debt before the manufacturer left for New York.

"A man giving the name of Reed came into my office one day shortly before Christmas," Staub told Detective Sergeants Kerr, Gynn, and Cusick, "and laid $4,750 worth of American Express checks on my desk. He told me they had been found by some boys in a rubbish pile."

"You're sure these checks were not stolen?" I asked him.

"No, no. They're all right, but I want to get my money out of them at once," he said.

Many Cashed in Loop.

If he had offered the checks at half their face value, I would have become suspicious, but he offered me $250 to dispose of them for him. I gave $1,180 worth to my wife. She cashed them readily in shopping tours in the loop. I did not think much about the transaction until I put one of the checks to cash at the Seaver and Tunnel Miners' union.

Throwing of three bombs during the progress of the long campaign in the ward, and talk that there would be frauds at the polls today led Judge Righelmen to refuse to allow any ballots to go into the ward last night.

Holds Ballot Until Today.

"There will be no stuffing of ballot boxes, nor other humpbugery in the Nineteenth ward in this election," he announced. "To make sure of that I am withholding all ballots for that ward, and all the election books, until the morning, when I will personally deliver them into the hands of the officials in each precinct. I will meet Election Commissioner William H. Stuart in the election commissioners' office at 5 a. m. Then we will take the ballots and books out and deliver them.

Small organized bands have in the past spread terror and made mockery of the law in certain sections of Chicago on election days. The chief terror zone in this election seems to be the Nineteenth ward. Due to the recent outrages in this ward I am informed the decent citizenship is fearful of a reign of terror and lawlessness.

In addition to the police there will be a representative of the county judge in every precinct. Judge Righelmen said he will tour the ward during the day. Heavy police guards were also ordered to the Fourth and Fifth wards, where the contests are bitter.

Staub was shown police pictures of crackmen and identified one man, but a check on samples of the suspect's handwriting failed to confirm the identification. The police declared several women are under suspicion.

Root May Go to London.

Meantime, Julius Schwill and his party are waiting at the Atlantic seaboard for the mystery to be cleared. He hopes to sail Thursday on the steamship Providence for a Mediterranean tour.

It is absurd to think Mr. Schwill would stoop to cashing stolen checks," said Oscar J. Rub, general manager of Albert Schwill & Co. "He is a millionaire, a business man, a stockholder in various corporations.

He left for the east with his wife and Mrs. Henry Rang a week ago last Saturday, having made plans for an ocean trip. His boat was to have sailed tomorrow, but has been held in quarantine and will sail Thursday instead. He hopes to clear up this matter and take the boat."

THE FIRST PAGE of the rotogravure section next Sunday will be a reproduction of an etching of

Warren G. Harding

whose inauguration takes place March 4. It is free with

Sunday's Tribune

Read the

BLUE RIBBON

story by May Edington called

"For He's a Jolly Good Fellow"

Continued on page 4, column 4.

CITY TO VOTE TODAY; BONDS CHIEF ISSUE

Police Will Guard Polls in 3 Wards.

Chicago's second nonpartisan election will be held today under conditions unique and even paradoxical.

For practically the first time in its history the interest of the city is centered not in the fate of individual candidates but in a bond issue—one of $8,000,000 for which the city hall asks authorization to pay off, the city's floating indebtedness.

In all except three or four wards the election promises to be the quietest in the city's history. In three or four—notably the Fourth, Fifth and Nineteenth—it promises to be one of the most exciting and violent.

Fear Trouble in Nineteenth.

Because of these conditions County Judge Frank Righelmen, in control of the election machinery, last night took precautions which were unprecedented in the city's history, and Chief of Police Fitzmorris made plans to back him up. Their preparations principally concerned the Nineteenth ward—where Ald. John Powers, a veteran of three years' service in the city council, is fighting for his political life against Anthony D'Andrea, president of the Seaver and Tunnel Miners' union.

"A man giving the name of Reed came into my office one day shortly before Christmas," Staub told Detective Sergeants Kerr, Gynn, and Cusick, "and laid $4,750 worth of American Express checks on my desk. He told me they had been found by some boys in a rubbish pile."

"You're sure these checks were not stolen?" I asked him.

"No, no. They're all right, but I want to get my money out of them at once," he said.

Many Cashed in Loop.

If he had offered the checks at half their face value, I would have become suspicious, but he offered me $250 to dispose of them for him. I gave $1,180 worth to my wife. She cashed them readily in shopping tours in the loop. I did not think much about the transaction until I put one of the checks to cash at the Seaver and Tunnel Miners' union.

Throwing of three bombs during the progress of the long campaign in the ward, and talk that there would be frauds at the polls today led Judge Righelmen to refuse to allow any ballots to go into the ward last night.

Holds Ballot Until Today.

"There will be no stuffing of ballot boxes, nor other humpbugery in the Nineteenth ward in this election," he announced. "To make sure of that I am withholding all ballots for that ward, and all the election books, until the morning, when I will personally deliver them into the hands of the officials in each precinct. I will meet Election Commissioner William H. Stuart in the election commissioners' office at 5 a. m. Then we will take the ballots and books out and deliver them.

Small organized bands have in the past spread terror and made mockery of the law in certain sections of Chicago on election days. The chief terror zone in this election seems to be the Nineteenth ward. Due to the recent outrages in this ward I am informed the decent citizenship is fearful of a reign of terror and lawlessness.

In addition to the police there will be a representative of the county judge in every precinct. Judge Righelmen said he will tour the ward during the day. Heavy police guards were also ordered to the Fourth and Fifth wards, where the contests are bitter.

Staub was shown police pictures of crackmen and identified one man, but a check on samples of the suspect's handwriting failed to confirm the identification. The police declared several women are under suspicion.

Root May Go to London.

Meantime, Julius Schwill and his party are waiting at the Atlantic seaboard for the mystery to be cleared. He hopes to sail Thursday on the steamship Providence for a Mediterranean tour.

It is absurd to think Mr. Schwill would stoop to cashing stolen checks," said Oscar J. Rub, general manager of Albert Schwill & Co. "He is a millionaire, a business man, a stockholder in various corporations.

He left for the east with his wife and Mrs. Henry Rang a week ago last Saturday, having made plans for an ocean trip. His boat was to have sailed tomorrow, but has been held in quarantine and will sail Thursday instead. He hopes to clear up this matter and take the boat."

THE FIRST PAGE of the rotogravure section next Sunday will be a reproduction of an etching of

Warren G. Harding

whose inauguration takes place March 4. It is free with

Sunday's Tribune

Read the

BLUE RIBBON

story by May Edington called

"For He's a Jolly Good Fellow"

Continued on page 4, column 4.

One Foot Fall from Toy Wagon Kills Gary Boy

Gary, Ind., Feb. 21.—[Special.]

Arthur, 5 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of 221 Carolina street, Gary, was killed today when he fell from his toy wagon, breaking his neck in a fall of one foot.

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said, "I believe in Harry Daugherty, his attorney

"I may say that this opposition has seemed to strengthen my purpose to appoint Mr. Daugherty," Mr. Hardy said. "I think he will make a great attempt. You can put that in your valued papers in black type and if it is your wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have

survived if it was wish."

Mr. Anderson said he might have court to attend to baseball business. Chairman Volstead asked Welty to get down to the proof of his charges. Welty went into discussion of the Illinois statutes, which throw restrictions about the activities of state judges. He was interrupted by Husted and Walsh, who declared that this statute did not control Judge Landis.

"We are limited by the five specifications of your impeachment charges," Illinois said when Welty sought to go at length into the legal controversy in the District of Columbia courts between the Baltimore baseball club and the American and National leagues.

Legal Source: Oratory? Lois.

"This committee sits as a prosecutor," Welty protested. "It can hear anything, open up anything, that has bearing on these charges."

"Do you have speeches; give us the facts," Volstead said.

Welty read the letter from Attorney General Palmer, received by him some days ago, stating there was no specific general law prohibiting Judge Landis from accepting the position of baseball arbiter. "I will not talk the matter over," he declared, touching this subject to go in the record," he explained.

"How many cases has Judge Landis disposed of during the last year?" Volstead asked. "That is more important than the number of cases docked."

"You can get that information," Welty said, sharply.

Volstead's Spirit is Boli.

"I don't propose to be insulted," Volstead pointed. "You are here with characters. We want the facts."

Husted interrupted: "I think it dangerous that Judge Landis should accept this salary, but I want some facts to sustain our position in their judicial duties. He stated he had no witnesses to support his charges."

"I would like to find some legal way to impeach the judge," Boles commented.

"What I want to find out from you, Mr. Welty, is the date for your deep conviction that Judge Landis should be impeached," Walsh said.

"I am giving you my reasons," Welty replied. "If you don't want to know I will stop."

"Have you any proof that Judge Landis has neglected the duties of his country?" Representative Igose asked.

"I have not," Welty said. "But I know he cannot give full time to his court, as required by law, and attend to his work under the contract with the baseball players."

"Don't Need Law to Impeach."

"I want to prove that these baseball players were guilty of bribing Judge Landis. You are not required to have a statutory law to try and convict Judge Landis of high crimes and misdemeanors. He is appointed during good behavior under the constitution, and he can be removed for malfeasance."

Representative Gard, Ohio, asked Welty to show where Judge Landis was guilty of neglect in failing to attend to the duties of his court. "Do you think we can base impeachment charges on what we think might happen?" he asked.

District Preventives.

"The District of Columbia court was liable to get in his court," Welty said.

Welty also accused Judge Landis of lobbying by recommending to baseball magnates, including Hermann, that they try to get certain legislation through the Ohio legislature.

"Judges frequently come before this committee and recommend legislation and you do not charge them with lobbying," Walsh said.

"I am presenting my facts, and it is for you to decide, not the footprints of the rabbit," Welty replied.

"The precedents of one court are followed by other courts. These baseball organizations are an unlawful combination and they ran to Judge Landis for protection."

Lands League of Nations.

"Do you charge that these baseball organizations had illegal contracts which Judge Landis was to protect?" Representative Yates, Illinois, asked.

"Yes, Welty said. "They were convicted under the Sherman anti-trust law. The system of having a baseball organization with Judge Landis as arbiter is like the language of nations. It is intended to take in all the baseball organizations, big and little, and Landis acts as supreme ruler."

"I think it important to know whether these baseball organizations are illegal," Volstead said.

Goodykoons asked why the baseball organization had picked out a federal judge for arbiter at such a large salary.

Spilling Fleas on Ermine.

"A man who gets a reputation can get the money, but a federal judge should not hanker for the fleas, and he should get off the bench and cease selling the ermine," Welty replied.

"If all federal judges should enter into such agreements as what concerned the fleas, I would be more inclined to feel in more favor of Husted's comment," Every one knew that Judge Landis can't attend to his duties as judge and fill this position."

"Why don't the beef packers employ a federal judge to help guide them through their troubles?" Goodykoons asked.

"Why should the country wait for

THE BATTLE AGAINST RENT PROFITEERING

Joseph F. Peacock, city real estate agent, questioning tenants protesting against exorbitant rent increases, and landlords who seek to defend their actions.

Vivian Massey pasting up in her flat window one of the signs to be used by the Tenants' League in its "strike" against rent gougers. (Tribune Photo.)

Tenants' League Begins Strike on Rent Gouger

The Chicago Tenants' Protective League launched its 100,000 tenants' strike last night at a meeting in the Parkside school, 6930 East End avenue, when the first placards declaring apartments in which they are exhibiting rents were given to the public.

Unjust profits are to go into the public treasury instead of going into their own pockets."

Abandon Rent Plans.

While complaints continued to pour into the city hall and the offices of the tenant organization, several more landlords changed their minds about increasing rents.

The meeting was the first of a series of ten to be held in a whirlwind campaign preceding the request to the legislature for anti-rent profiteering measures.

"We are taking no chances on either the action of the legislature or the Chicago Real Estate board's committee which has called upon landlords to seek no increases over those made last year," said A. E. Jesurum, secretary.

"If I don't miss my guess, the efforts of landlords to evict tenants who will not submit to exorbitant rental demands will be frustrated at the meeting of the Municipal court judges on Friday. If they do as they should, rent cases will be forced to take their proper place on the bottom of the calendar.

May Tie Up 100,000 Flats.

"If the judges do the right thing it will take 100,000 or more for them to come to trial. We will have at least 100,000 tenants who have received exorbitant price of last summer," said Mr. Peacock, city real estate agent.

"If the rents are not raised, the rents of any of his apartments except one, and that only to bring it up to the others."

Mrs. Cora Luken, who owns a building at 1243 Rosemont avenue, raised the rents from $65 to $90. After talking with Mr. Peacock, she agreed a $5 increase was plenty.

Thomas Dwyer, a clerk in the controller's office at the city hall registered a complaint against Arthur L. Trine, a clerk in the water office.

Trine owns the building at 1551 East Sixty-fifth street. Dwyer charges the rents previously was raised from $60 to $90 and that now Trine demands $100.

Ask About Davis' Company.

In a letter to the Tenants' League Edward L. O'Brien, 7605 South Peoria street, asks why the Chicago Title and Trust company of which George A. Davis, chairman of the Chicago real estate board's anti-rent profiteering committee, is vice president, demands an increase of from $48 to $60. He was previously raised from $40 to $90.

Following is a list of meetings to be held this week by the Chicago Tenants' Protective League:

Tomorrow night— Hyde Park High school, 2000 Englewood avenue; at 8:30 A. M. today— Alexian Brothers hospital last night of injuries sustained yesterday in which his clothes became entangled in a grinding machine which he was operating at a tombstone factory at 1036 West Division street. He was dragged into the machine.

None Better HESS FURNACES TOP FLOOR TACOMA BUILDING

CLOTHIERS BUY FALL WOOLENS AT CUT PRICES

New York, Feb. 21.—The American Woolen company, the largest producer of wool goods, today named prices for the fall of 1921 on a basis from 45 to 50 per cent below price levels of last autumn. There were good orders from Chicago, Cleveland, Boston, and Rochester.

The dress goods lines included many men's coat materials, while the overcoatings included nearly 75 per cent of fancy back goods against 25 per cent of staples.

A woman's wear serge that was priced at $3.97 1/2 a yard a year ago was offered at $2 for the coming season.

"We are the more dismayed," the report reads, "at the senate attacks on a federal judge. Your effort to administer evil could not be commented upon more. We believe that the Senate is due to your fearless, rigorous and impartial application of the law. You have awakened by this deep enmity and widespread hatred among the lawless and greedy interests."

Barlson Criticized for Barrier to Naval Reserve

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—(Special)—Representative Clarence McGregor of New York, today protested to Postmaster General Burleson against the action of the department in refusing to grant leave of absence to employees summoned for temporary duty with the naval reserve. The reservists resigned in order to comply with their orders and when they were refused, Representative McGregor sharply criticized the short sighted policy involved.

Chicago Tribune
THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

VOL. LXXX. TUESDAY, Feb. 22. No. 45.

Published daily at No. 7 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. Mail subscription price, 25 cents. Postage paid at Chicago, Illinois, and at other post offices throughout the United States. Zone 1 to 6 inclusive—Daily $7.50 per year. Zone 7 to 12 inclusive—Daily $7.50 per year. Entered as Second Class Matter, Feb. 21, 1908, at the Postoffice at Chicago, Illinois, under act of March 3, 1879.

The Tobey Gift Shop

contains numerous singular and unmatched objects which are perfect and proper expressions of the gift spirit at any time of the year.

This hand decorated pole screen is $60.00.

The Tobey Furniture Company

Wabash Avenue and Washington Street

Fine Oriental Rugs at present low prices afford matchless values

Those who have had occasion to observe the course of Oriental Rug values during the past few years will fully appreciate the extraordinary values now available at Pushman's.

The lowest possible price limit has been reached on Rugs of superior merit.

And we confidently recommend the immediate consideration and action of all who contemplate buying Rugs this year.

We will gladly send Rugs on approval to responsible people. Any Oriental Rugs purchased of us can be exchanged within a year at full purchase price, if undamaged.

Pushman Bros.
16 South Wabash Avenue Near Madison
Oriental and Domestic Rugs

GREEK PREMIER SAYS NATION CAN ROUT KEMALISTS

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF

French General Smiles at Athens' Claims.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

[Copyright: 1921 by The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Greece can mop up all the Turks in Asia Minor within the next three months in the opinion of Nikolaos Kalogeropoulos, the Greek premier, as expressed to the supreme council of the League of Nations this afternoon when the Sevres treaty was discussed.

M. Kalogeropoulos asked for no direct financial aid to Greece in the enforcing of the Turkish treaty, merely indicating that the Athens government had hoped for "economic cooperation," which the French regard as a direct appeal for money to carry on the campaign.

Colonel Gouraud, chief of staff of the Greek army in Asia Minor, assured the conference against sharing Greek optimism.

"The Greeks are now fighting tired, exhausted Turks who formerly inhabited the littoral which the Greeks now occupy," he declared. "When they penetrate further inland the Greeks will encounter tribes which history shows to be courageous fighters."

Gen. Gouraud merely smiled when the Greeks promised to subdue the Turks in a three months campaign.

The results of the Sevres treaty were not broadcast, said Prem-erland after the session.

Soon we attempted to learn from the Greeks the exact situation there. To morning the British, Italians,

Japanese, and myself will discuss to day's session, and we shall hear the Turks tomorrow afternoon."

George Paradee, owner of an apartment building at 1531 East Sixty-fifth street, announced that he would not increase his rentals. William Lawrence, owner of a twenty-four apartment building at 2128 South Lawndale-avenue, and John L. Peacock, city real estate agent, also refused to raise the rents of any of their apartments except one, and that only to bring it up to the others.

Mrs. Cora Luken, who owns a building at 1243 Rosemont avenue, raised the rents from $65 to $90. After talking with Mr. Peacock, she agreed a $5 increase was plenty.

Thomas Dwyer, a clerk in the controller's office at the city hall registered a complaint against Arthur L.

Trine, a clerk in the water office.

Trine owns the building at 1551 East

Sixty-fifth street. Dwyer charges the rents previously was raised from $60 to $90 and that now Trine demands $100.

Ask About Davis' Company.

In a letter to the Tenants' League

Edward L. O'Brien, 7605 South Peoria

&lt;p

T. PAUL
NEAPOLIS
CHESTER

Chicago
5:30 P.M.
6:00 P.M.

out of a rail use a modernized and

CHICAGO
GREAT WESTERN RAILROAD

179 W. JACKSON BLVD.
Wabash 4000
W. AND WELLS STREETS
Harrison 2585

FURNACES

—North Dakota that he can sit in his office and with the 30 to 40 degrees

Haskins—in Maine
heans His Fess
as a stove;

Walter Lincoln—in need just a little more money;

Hess Furnaces join Florida for a little the quick and

Thousand Chicago
now the Hess Fur-exactly right for and addresses are on request—everywhere—must be

YOU want.

BETTER
ING & VENTILATING CO
TACOMA BUILDING

WAR IN VAIN IF U. S. AND ALLIES SPLIT: GEN. WOOD

Also Urges Preparedness at Army-Navy Dinner.

A solemn warning against propaganda which tends to embitter the people of the United States against the nations with whom we were allied during the world war was delivered last night by Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood. Gen. Wood spoke before 1,200 men and women who attended the banquet given by the Army and Navy club of Chicago in the Drake hotel. In his audience were nearly 200 men who served as officers during the war, some in the uniforms, not only of every branch of our service, but those of most of the allied nations. Directly before Gen. Wood when he was handed the gavel presented to him on his acceptance of the presidency of the club was a young officer in the horizon blue of France.

"I notice before me the uniform of one of our allies," Gen. Wood said. "Don't let any vicious propaganda drive a wedge between us and the men we fought beside during the great war."

Remark Starts Demonstration.

He got no further for a few minutes. Every one in uniform in the great banquet was on his feet in a minute, quickly followed by those in civilian attire and the women. Napkins and handkerchiefs were waved and there was spontaneous cheering which lasted for some time.

Gen. Wood continued.

"If we ever go back on our allies, the millions who are buried in France and Belgium will have died in vain. Let us stand together and let us not irritate them. There never will be a quarrel as long as there is no enmity between the nations. Not until confidence has been established can we hope to bring about lasting peace, whether through some means such as an amplified Hague tribunal, or a modified league of nations which will give the people of the United States the absolute freedom of saying when we will go to war."

And we must put Europe to work. If we do not there will be another war before long, and no one can say how far the conflict will spread. Some may be found of establishing long term credits and curing the industrial ills of the world."

Tells On Preparedness.

Then Gen. Wood turned to preparedness.

"Let us arbitrate, but let us remember we can arbitrate better when we are strong," he said. "It is an insult to our people to tell us that we can't be trusted if we are prepared for war. It is like telling the individual citizen that he must not possess a weapon which he may use against a high-wayman or the burglar because he has a brother."

"I am sure to say that we haven't used our eyes or ears, or our intelligence in learning the lessons that should have been taught us in the last war."

"Let us forget that all the cannon, all the airplanes and a large part of the ammunition that we were then furnished us by the allies who had held the bloody line for three years when America was not prepared. A large part of the dead in the world's war are our dead, not the boche's dead. They died because we were not prepared."

"Of all those who love peace, the men who wore the uniform stand first. They stand for preparedness for future wars, because they know what war means and they dread, hate, and loathe it. The professional soldier is no more in love with war than a good surgeon is with being operated upon himself."

Great Lakes Chief Speaks.

Capt. Daniel W. Wurtzbaugh, U. S. N. C. commandant of Great Lakes Naval station, spoke for the navy, commanding the reserve naval officers, who served during the war and the patriots of Chicago.

Maj. Alfred J. Benson, toasting master, explained the intention back of the formation of the Army and Navy club. The dinner was followed by a ball.

MICHIGAN FRAT IN TROUBLE OVER A CHORUS PARTY

Ann Arbor, Feb. 21.—Phi Delta Phi, the leading legal fraternity at the University of Michigan, has been placed on probation, and four other Greek letter societies are being investigated because one has admitted and others are trying to avoid admitting that they entertained young women members of a musical comedy at a dance Sunday evening.

Dean Bates, one of the investigators, though failing to find any evidence of misconduct on the part of a considerable amount of liquor had been consumed, said that the time to stop such a thing was as soon as it started.

One student was so indignant when he heard of the proposed party that he and his suitcase packed to go elsewhere to spend the night, but before he left the house the girls came. He stayed. The best known students of the law school are among those placed on probation, a sentence which bars students from campus activities until the ban is lifted.

SENATORS PLAN TO BOLSTER UP HOUSE NAVY BILL

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—(Special)—The senate naval affairs committee has made up its mind to strengthen the naval appropriations bill passed by the house in three important particulars:

First, by appropriating approximately $10,000,000 for the construction of airplane carriers of the largest type.

Second, by at least doubling the appropriation allowed by the house for naval aircraft. The house allowed $10,000,000. The senate committee would increase this amount to more than $20,000,000.

Third, by increasing the strength of the naval personnel to approximately 100,000 men. The house appropriation would cut the navy personnel to 100,000.

Col. H. B. McCain, Capt. D. W. Wurtzbaugh, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, Maj. Alfred J. Benson, and Gen. George H. Harries.

LEAGUE COUNCIL SEEKS U. S. VIEW ON AMENDMENTS

U. S. Not Represented, Dominates Session.

BY FLOYD GIBBONS.

Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service. [Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Feb. 21.—The United States, although not represented at the meeting, dominated the proceedings of the council of the league of nations here today.

Speculation as to the attitude of the new administration regarding the league resulted in the referring of amendments to the league covenant to a committee, which will not report before April, thus giving the Harding administration time to define its position on the league.

Tells On Preparedness.

Then Gen. Wood turned to preparedness.

"Let us arbitrate, but let us remember we can arbitrate better when we are strong," he said. "It is an insult to our people to tell us that we can't be trusted if we are prepared for war. It is like telling the individual citizen that he must not possess a weapon which he may use against a high-wayman or the burglar because he has a brother."

"I am sure to say that we haven't used our eyes or ears, or our intelligence in learning the lessons that should have been taught us in the last war."

Remarks Swiss Decision.

The council regrets the Swiss refusal and the opposition to the obligations which the covenant assigns to members of the league.

It is pointed out that the seat of the league being located in Switzerland, her refusal amounts to the barring of the league's troops from the league's seat, which is an impossible situation.

HARDING SENDS WASHINGTON DAY NOTE BY RADIO

President Elect Harding last night dispatched from St. Augustine, Fla., a Washington's birthday wireless message to hundreds of public officials throughout the United States. The message was sent to test the efficiency of the amateur wireless service maintained by the American Radio Relays League. Delivered to governors of all states and mayors of innumerable cities, it read:

"May the spirit of Washington be our guide in all our national aspirations, and may the current year mark the return of tranquility, stability, confidence, and progress for the entire world."

WARREN G. HARDING.

To complicate the test, half the message was sent from Hartford, Conn., and the remainder from San Francisco, Cal. It was assembled and picked up at various points throughout the country in less than twenty minutes.

R. H. G. Mathews, at station 9-Z-N, 5620 Sheridan road, relayed President Elect Harding's message here.

35

350 35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

35

ALSATIAN TRADE STARVING UNDER HIGH TAX LEVY

Both French and Germans Join in Complaint.

The Tribune prints today the third of a series of articles written by a correspondent of the New York World who was sent into the Rhine region to get the truth of conditions in territories taken from Germany under the peace treaty or occupied by allied troops.

Other articles to be printed this week will deal with the Saar and the Belgian methods of taking territory.

(By A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
(Copyright: 1921, By the Press Publishing Co., The New York World.)

LOMME, Feb. 20.—One of the most important economic grievances held by the liberated provinces—Alsace and Lorraine—against the politicians in Paris has to do with the trade of the Rhine between Strasburg and Antwerp. These grievances are held by French and German factions alike. The correspondent was assured that Strasburg can be made the greatest trans-shipment point for central Europe if Paris will adopt a sensible policy and permit goods to come up the Rhine from Antwerp without levying heavy customs dues on them.

The Belgians are no less irritated than the Alsaciens, and constant conferences are going on both in Strasburg and Antwerp. The general opinion seems to be that the best way to give way to the management approach is to establish trade, thus helping to revive the present stagnant trade of Antwerp and proving a great boon to Lorraine and Alsace.

Two Ports United.
Under the terms of the peace treaty the ports of Strasburg and Kehl, which is directly across the river, are united for the present. In other words, the Germans, until the treaty has been carried out, are not permitted to use Kehl. Part of the German river fleet on the Rhine also has been awarded to the French, though by no means so much as the Belgians.

Walker D. Hines, the American arbitrator appointed under the treaty, has just announced his decision regarding the division of the Rhine fleet. France is awarded 253,000 tons of barge capacity and about 24,000 horse power of tug capacity, this being about 13.5 per cent of the tonnage on the Rhine.

The French asked for 50 per cent and laid outries are now heard in business circles in Strasburg.

Tells Strasburg's Hope.
M. Robert Maupey, president of the Strasburg chamber of commerce, explained the plans and hopes of the port for an important commercial future under the new régime. The union of the ports of Strasburg and Kehl, he pointed out, stifles possible competition from the German state of Baden, across the river, while the suppression of customs taxes on merchandise arriving at Strasburg from Antwerp by the Rhine will make Strasburg the seaport of the east of France.

The city has acquired the dockyards formerly belonging to the German firms of Thyssen, Roehling, Hugo Stinnes, Karcher et Cie, and Haldy.

"By her return to France," said M. Levy, deputy mayor, "Strasburg becomes the seaport of the east and a part of the southeast of France; we ought to furnish these parts with coal, cement, iron, steel, glass, phosphates, mineral and vegetable oils, and from these regions we should be able to export abroad, aside from manufactured products, potash, soda, wines, and perhaps ores."

Bitterness Over Delay.
So far as the correspondent could learn, these rosy dreams for the future of the port of Strasburg have not yet commenced to be translated into reality. This is due in part to the delay in settling the terms of the treaty in assigning river boats to the French, but still more to the customs difficulties between Strasburg and France. The German problem has now been settled, but the latter remains.

It appears true that the economic prosperity of Alsace and Lorraine depends greatly upon the free and uninterrupted traffic with Antwerp, and there is much bitterness in Strasburg because of the delays of the French government in arranging matters with the Belgians.

A "Committee Antwerp-Strasburg" has been formed, consisting of business men in both ports, and will bring pressure to bear on the respective governments to open the gates to trade.

The present need of the French finance minister for immediate cash is said to be the root of the difficulty; considerable customs dues have been levied on goods that have come up the Rhine from Antwerp, and it is difficult to make the ministry of finance give up this actual source of cash income, even though a trade many times as great would commerce were the imports reduced.

The industries and economic problems of Alsace and Lorraine are intricately mixed up with the tangled political situation, and with the hatred between Frenchman and German.

In the Vosges mountains cows are grazed and Munster cheese is made and exported. The plain of the Rhine is fertile and agriculture thrives. Good crops of potatoes, cereals, sugar beets, hops, tobacco, flax, hemp, grapes and fruit are produced. The cereals grown are wheat, oats, barley and rye. Agricultural activity goes on as before the war, excepting that, as elsewhere,

Mr. Harding's Latest Choices

HARRY M. DAUGHERTY.
To be Attorney General.

HENRY P. FLETCHER.
To Be Assistant Secretary of State.

HUGHES FINDS G. O. P. CORDIAL IN HIS SUPPORT

Daugherty Is Named for Attorney General.

(Continued from first page.)

another announcement to make during the week. Arrived this morning of Meyer Bloomfield, labor and industrial expert of Boston, led to the rumor that he was being considered for a labor post. He gave it as his opinion that Mr. Harding should "put outside the union labor circles for this appointment."

To Be a Republican Government.

The considerations which are guiding Mr. Harding in making his selections, he said, are threefold. First is the desire to serve on the part of the candidate, the ability to serve the people. Second is the ability to be a credit to this man and how he would appeal to the people. Third is the political complexion. Mr. Harding reiterated that he intended to have a Republican cabinet and said he thought the Americans expected the Republicans to run the government.

"It is the dying moan," he said, "of a passing director who by arbitrary rulings has made himself obnoxious to all liberty loving and law abiding citizens. Mr. Stone has no right to limit the number of prescriptions that a doctor may prescribe. It is ridiculous to suppose that he, without medical training, should know more about what patients need than a physician who has studied for years."

Under present conditions physicians are limited to 100 prescriptions every three months. They are also allowed to issue emergency prescriptions in certain cases. The order for Scott's arrest was issued at the request of Assistant District Attorney Myer Linker on evidence tending to show the physician had issued 700 emergency prescriptions in two months.

Robinson of the American Shipping and Commerce association. Mr. Harding said he did not think the government should go into the shipping business, although he wants a great merchant marine built up. He said that it had been proposed to him to create a ministry of transportation with a single agency to take over the whole situation and create a new cabinet job. While this was well worth thinking over, he said, he was not seriously considering it at present, as congress was not ready for it.

"There is a growing sentiment, first voiced by E. N. Hurley," he said, "that the shipping board scheme is of doubtful utility."

DR. SCOTT, NAMED IN DRY WARRANT, ASSAILS STONE

Another episode in the battle between Ralph W. Stone, prohibition director, and Dr. Eldorado W. Scott, leader of a new "medical freedom" movement, was enacted yesterday when a federal warrant charging the physician with violation of the prohibitory law was issued.

Dr. Scott was bitter in his comment.

"It is the dying moan," he said, "of a passing director who by arbitrary rulings has made himself obnoxious to all liberty loving and law abiding citizens. Mr. Stone has no right to limit the number of prescriptions that a doctor may prescribe. It is ridiculous to suppose that he, without medical training, should know more about what patients need than a physician who has studied for years."

Under present conditions physicians are limited to 100 prescriptions every three months. They are also allowed to issue emergency prescriptions in certain cases. The order for Scott's arrest was issued at the request of Assistant District Attorney Myer Linker on evidence tending to show the physician had issued 700 emergency prescriptions in two months.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & CO

Men's All-Wool Suits Greatly Reduced to $35

So unusual is the value-giving in these high-grade suits that more and more men each day are finding that savings of very worth-while nature are to be made.

Fabrics are all-wool, and in patterns to meet the preferences of men and young men of every age. Styles are either single- or double-breasted. All sizes. Radically reduced to $35.

Men's High-Grade Ulsters Reduced to $35 and $55

Our entire stock of ulsters has been reduced for final clearance. Included are ulsters of the finest imported and domestic fabrics. A profitable purchase indeed at $35 or $55.

Long trouser suits for high-school youths are greatly reduced to $35.

Second Floor, South.

Specially Featured in the February Sale

Men's Boots and Oxfords Special at $10.95 Pair

Boots and Oxfords of these fine qualities at so low a price mean important savings. Men will agree that the February Sale brings advantages very definitely worth while.

Boys' Shoes

High-grade shoes of leather qualities certain to give excellent service. Styles are just those boys require. Prices range from $4.45 to $8.45 pair.

The shoes purchased in this sale may be exchanged, but will not be accepted for credit or refund.

First Floor, South.

Two Special Sellings Starting Today

Men's Soft Cuffed Shirts Of Imported Madras, $3

Men know that shirts of imported madras of this kind are remarkable for their excellent wearing qualities.

So this low price warrants the purchase of several of such fine shirts. Patterns smartly striped or more conservative—many color combinations.

Workmanship is especially good. This is evident immediately upon inspection. All sizes from 14 to 17-inch neckbands. $3.

First Floor, South.

Men's Neckwear for Spring Unusual at a Dollar

Smart new neckwear—a special shipment just received. In the new narrow shape preferred for spring—a remarkable variety of patterns and colorings. These values are typical of those always to be found in this section. $1.

First Floor, South.

Vaughan's 1921 Seed Catalog

You can't make a garden without it.
GET YOUR COPY TO-DAY
MAILED FREE Outside Chicago
Peoria, Ill. South Bend, Ind.

Vaughan's Seed Store
10-12 W. RANDOLPH, near State

PAULMAN

H. Paulman & Company
Chicago
Peoria, Ill. South Bend, Ind.

COMMONS SIDES WITH PREMIER'S IRISH POLICIES

Lord Cecil Makes Bow as Opposition Whip.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune. LONDON, Feb. 21.—Three outstanding events punctuated the debate in the house of commons on the Irish question today. They were:

An overwhelming vote of confidence in the government's Irish policy.

The debut of Lord Robert Cecil as whip of the opposition party.

A biting altercation between Herbert Asquith, former premier, and Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland.

It was by rejecting, 357 to 88, the amendment proposed by Capt. William Wedgewood Benn that commons voted itself compactly behind the Irish platform of Prime Minister Lloyd George, and it was during discussion of this proposal that Lord Robert made his first speech from the opposition benches—a speech which was followed by continued cheering, not only from the left side of the house, but from the government benches as well.

Cecil Proposes Inquiry.

Lord Robert's was the most effective speech of the evening. Having heard others argue for and against the Irish policy in bitter phrases, he brushed aside both charges and counter charges.

"I am not interested," he said, "in offending either mother or lawless reversal. I am concerned chiefly with the fact that conditions in Ireland are worse than they have been for 120 years. The present government directly is responsible for this."

Lord Cecil expressed doubt that the present government, "with its record," could ever make peace with Ireland, as it has incited the violent hatred of the Irish people.

As an immediate measure he urged the appointment of a commission to go to Ireland and inquire into the atrocities on both sides and then present an impartial report on which the British people and the parliament could act.

Asquith Answers His Critics.

The alteration between Mr. Asquith and Sir Hamar Greenwood followed an assertion by the latter that "the present terrible state of things in Ireland" was due to maladministration by the Liberal government.

Immediately Mr. Asquith rose.

"Between the years 1906 and 1916," he declared, "I was the head of the government and the present prime minister was my leading colleague. During all of that time, Mr. Chief Secretary, where do I stand?"

"During the winter of that time he was my most valuable and most reliable supporter."

Mr. Asquith then declared that Sir Hamar Greenwood had accused him of being an "apostol" and "an abettor and accomplice in crime."

At this Sir Hamar interrupted, saying:

"I never accused you of being an accomplice in crime. What I said was that Mr. Asquith in a speech unwittingly had given encouragement to the enemies of the country."

Asquith Has Last Word.

"This," Mr. Asquith rejoined, "is a compliment to my character at the expense of my intelligence."

Concluding his address, the former premier said that recent happenings in Ireland reflected a lurid light on the "abhorrent claims of the prime minister and the chief secretary for Ireland" that reprisals were restoring order.

Mr. Hamar made one of his most effective speeches replying to charges made by Capt. Wedgewood Benn, a follower of Mr. Asquith, who has spent much time in Ireland, who opened the debate.

Capt. Benn repeated the familiar story of black and tan reprisals. He attacked Sir Hamar's claim that conditions were improving, pointing to the growing list of casualties in fights between troops, police, and rebels.

The former premier replied, however, that this increase was due to the fact that police and troops, who six months ago were on the defensive in their barracks, now were in the open "chasing Sinn Feiners, capturing or killing them and breaking up their organization."

Sir Hamar repudiated indignantly Mr. de Valera's recent statement that soldiers had outraged women.

"Not one single case of this sort ever has been charged," he said, "much less proven."

Sir Hamar warned the house the Sinn Fein conspiracy was being directed upon England, and he declared that a captured document told of an appropriation of $30,000 a month for the "republican army," most of which, he said, came from Irish-Americans.

The Irish Self-Determination league announced today that Sean MacSwiney, brother of the late lord mayor of Cork, who was arrested by the military in a general roundup Feb. 8, will be court-martialed in Cork tomorrow.

TWO DOORSTEP BABIES

HELEN AURE AND FOUNDLING.

One Assured Home

WILLIAM BYRNES.
(TRIBUNE Photo)

TWENTY FINED BY TRUDE AS SMOKE LAW VIOLATORS

With several others, he is charged with conspiring to levy war upon his master's forces and with possession of arms and ammunition.

The military court of inquiry opened hearings at Mallow today investigating the shooting of three of several railwaymen in connection with which a railway strike was threatened last week.

2 KILLED IN IRISH ATTACK

BY JOHN LESTER.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

DUBLIN, Feb. 21.—Two unidentified men were shot dead in Kilkenny today during an attack on the military. The soldiers were on their way to a prison where there are many political prisoners to relieve the guard when the attack opened. One soldier and one laborer who was passing were wounded.

"An 'official report' issued today regarding the Midleton fight, in which thirteen rebels were killed, declares the volunteers, when surrounded, put up a sturdy defense. Eventually they were compelled to leave the open and take cover in a house. The military, reinforced by police, set fire to the house and drove out the defenders. Some came running out with their hands up, but the remainder continued firing to the last. The commandant of the local rebel company was among those killed.

Mr. Asquith has said that Mr. Asquith in a speech unwittingly had given encouragement to the enemies of the country."

Asquith Has Last Word.

"This," Mr. Asquith rejoined, "is a compliment to my character at the expense of my intelligence."

Concluding his address, the former premier said that recent happenings in Ireland reflected a lurid light on the "abhorrent claims of the prime minister and the chief secretary for Ireland" that reprisals were restoring order.

Sir Hamar made one of his most effective speeches replying to charges made by Capt. Wedgewood Benn, a follower of Mr. Asquith, who has spent much time in Ireland, who opened the debate.

Capt. Benn repeated the familiar story of black and tan reprisals. He attacked Sir Hamar's claim that conditions were improving, pointing to the growing list of casualties in fights between troops, police, and rebels.

The former premier replied, however, that this increase was due to the fact that police and troops, who six months ago were on the defensive in their barracks, now were in the open "chasing Sinn Feiners, capturing or killing them and breaking up their organization."

Sir Hamar repudiated indignantly Mr. de Valera's recent statement that soldiers had outraged women.

"Not one single case of this sort ever has been charged," he said, "much less proven."

Sir Hamar warned the house the Sinn Fein conspiracy was being directed upon England, and he declared that a captured document told of an appropriation of $30,000 a month for the "republican army," most of which, he said, came from Irish-Americans.

The Irish Self-Determination league announced today that Sean MacSwiney, brother of the late lord mayor of Cork, who was arrested by the military in a general roundup Feb. 8, will be court-martialed in Cork tomorrow.

$50,000 FOR EVANSTON LIBRARY.

DALIAS, Tex., Feb. 21.—Fire early today destroyed the interior of the Harvey Furniture company building. The loss was estimated at $275,000.

"When Canada was called on the ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

"The Irish problem is a world issue, and must be settled as such," he declared. "And the same thing applies to Canada, Australia, and other British possessions.

"When Canada was called on the

ideal solution for world peace, Justice Gledhill said, would be for the United States to turn the Jap again westward into Asia and his own country; give him every aid in developing this vast territory, and win back his friendship and esteem. When this was done, he said, Great Britain should be forced to give Canada and the West Indies freedom.

The British-Japanese alliance, if such an alliance existed, would be of no concern to this country," he declared.

Other speakers included Lindsay Crawford of Canada.

CHICAGO HONORS "FATHER OF U. S." AND WAR HEROES

Many Tributes to Be Paid to Washington.

COLUMBIA
One of the Characters in School Tableaux Given in Honor of Washington's Birthday.

Mary Ellen Wright as Columbia.
(TRIBUNE Photo.)

Chicago and its suburbs will pause today to do patriotic reverence to the memory of George Washington on the 188th anniversary of his birth. All schools, public buildings, and banks will be closed, and there will be no delivery of mail.

At the end of the celebrations, opportunity also will be seized to pay tribute to the memory of the heroes of the world war. The principal event of this character will be the unveiling of a tablet erected in the city hall by the city of Chicago to the men who sacrificed their lives in the world conflict.

The principal address at the ceremonies, which will begin at 3 o'clock, will be delivered by Mayor William Hale Thompson. Col. William Nelson Pelouze is chairman in charge of the ceremonies. Other speakers will be the Rev. John Timilty, pastor of the Spanish Falls and Mrs. Nancy Cox McCormack, who designed and executed the tablet.

Schools Honor Washington.

Washington celebrations were held in all the schools in the city and county yesterday and programs were presented last night in various community centers.

Gov. Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky was the principal speaker at three functions today. He will be the principal orator at the annual Washington's birthday meeting of the Legion League club at the Auditorium theater at 10:15 a. m. Members of various patriotic and veterans' organizations have been invited to attend and a concert will be given by the band of the Great Lakes Naval Training station. The invocation will be delivered by the Rev. John Timothy Stoen.

(Gov. Morrow and Gen. Leonard Wood will be entertained by the Hamlin club at the luncheon and a triple excursion will speak again at dinner at the Union League club in the evening. The Rt. Rev. Charles J. Williams, Episcopal bishop of Michigan, will speak on "England an American Recent Expressions." The toasts, "The Navy" and "The Army," will be responded to, respectively by Capt. Daniel W. Wurtsbaugh, commanding at Great Lakes, and Col. Eli A. Helmick.)

Senator McCormick to Speak.

Senator Medill McCormick will speak at a Washington celebration to be held in Medina temple this evening.

Friends, members, and former members of the 1st infantry, I. N. G., will attend the annual Washington ball tonight at the armory, Michigan avenue and Sixteenth street.

BILL ASKS $5,000
FOR KIN OF SLAIN
POLICE, FIREMEN

Group insurance for city firemen and policemen, including a provision for laying dependents of policemen and firemen killed while on duty, a sum not to exceed $5,000, is provided for in a proposed bill approved yesterday by Acting Corporation Counsel James W. H. H. H.

The bill embodies the ideas of Ald. Joseph O. Kostner. It will be considered at the next meeting of the council judiciary committee, and if approved by the council will be forwarded to the legislature.

The bill provides that the fund for the $5,000 payment may either be provided by the city from the general fund, or that every policeman and fireman may be insured with any reliable insurance company, the annual premium on the policies to be paid by the city from its corporate fund.

Hangs Self to Wife's Door After She Gets Divorce

Despondent because his wife, Rose, had obtained a divorce, Joseph H. Forhan, 42 years old, 2553 Haddon avenue, committed suicide last night by hanging himself from the door of his wife's bedroom in her apartment at 264 Cortez street, while she was away.

Childs
75 W. Monroe St.
165 W. Madison St.
55 W. Washington St.

Watch Your Gums— Bleeding a Sign of Trouble

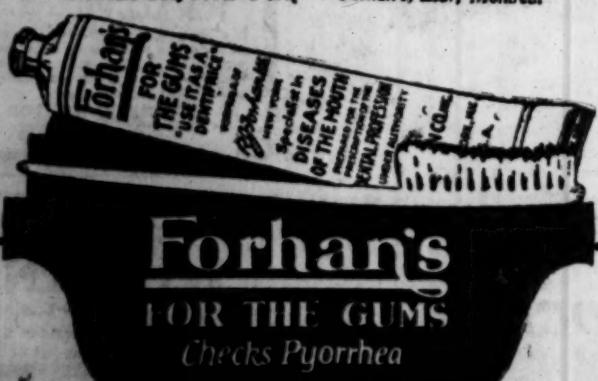

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the forerunners of Pyorrhcea, that dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pyorrhcea poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. These poisons often cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anemia, and other ills.

To avoid Pyorrhcea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhcea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

35 and 60c tubes. All druggists.

Formula of R. J. Forhan, M.D.S.
Forhan Co., New York Forhan, Ltd., Montreal

JOBLESS COLORED CALLERS FAIL TO FIND MAYOR IN

R. E. Parker, Negro editor, led a delegation of unemployed colored men to the city hall yesterday, but the callers failed in their two principal objectives. They found no jobs, and didn't get a chance to tell their troubles to Mayor Thompson.

"The mayor isn't in," the executive's secretary told the delegation, which had dwindled from twenty-five to five.

"Well, it's funny we can't find him," said Parker, who is editor of the Chicago Advocate. "He can always find us with letters when he wants us to vote for his bond issues. When he wanted our votes for the county, state and national tickets he promised jobs for all colored men. Now we can't find him."

Chief Fitzmorris happened along. He questioned the four remaining members of Parker's "army of unemployed," which Parker estimates at 26,000, and learned that Parker had been a resident of the city only eleven months, another twenty-one months, and another four years.

"Why," said the chief, "these men aren't Chicagoans. They are from Baton Rouge, New Orleans, and other points south."

"We are from Chicago enough to vote for the mayor, and his bond issues," replied Parker. "Why aren't we enough to get jobs?"

The chief called Parker aside and talked earnestly with him for several minutes. Later Parker declared the chief had threatened him with indictment unless he quit "stirring up the colored folk."

Parker and his following then adjourned to the council chamber, where he bumped into S. B. Turner, colored Republican member of the house of representatives from the First district.

"You get out of here before you get arrested," said the legislator.

PLANS TO SUE STANDARD OIL FOR $1,000,000,000

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Francis J. Heney of Los Angeles, Cal., has been retained by the Uncle Sam Oil company, which has its principal office here, with the avowed purpose of suing the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey for damages aggregating $1,000,000,000.

H. H. Tucker, president and general manager, made that statement today. It was learned that on March 7 a special meeting of the directors of the company will discuss ways and means of meeting the action, said to involve the largest claim for damages ever known in the courts of this or any other country.

The basis of the suit, it is alleged, will lie in controversies between Standard Oil and the Uncle Sam company, which led to considerable criminal and civil litigation two years ago in Oklahoma, Kansas, and Missouri. The principal bone of contention was over the ownership of the lease of 436,000 acres of oil producing lands from the Osage nation in Oklahoma.

The Uncle Sam company officials claim original title to the leases and claim that the certain "government influence" these leases were diverted to the Standard Oil company six years ago.

"Isn't it possible for the jury to set the number of years in a sentence of this kind?" the foreman of the jury inquired, after bringing in a sentence of from two to fifteen years in the prison for each of the men.

"The legislature ought to put teeth in this new motor vehicle act. We can get men sentenced in this way can get out on good behavior after eighteen months."

U. S. SUES POSTAL TELEGRAPH FOR $4,000,000 AUDIT

New York, Feb. 21.—The government, through Assistant United States Attorney Earl B. Barnes, filed in the United States District court here today a suit in equity to audit accounts from the postal Telegraph system for the money paid to that company as agent of the government in operating the system for one year during the war.

Mr. Barnes said the amount in dispute totals approximately $2,000,000.

Mr. Barnes said the companies took in $4,000,000 net.

Mr. Barnes said the lines were returned to the government neglected to take its money, and the companies later refused to give it up.

The suit is directed against the following trustees: Clarence H. Macfay, George G. Ward, Edward C. Platt, Charles H. Sabine, Lewis L. Clark, Milton L. Polk, George Chapperton, Edmund B. Osler, and Thomas Skinner.

FAITHFUL FOR 20 YEARS, GIRL ASKS SUITOR'S ESTATE

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 21.—Echoes of a twenty year romance were heard in the federal District court here today with the trial of the suit of Miss Molly Quirk, Milwaukee woman, for a $400,000 share in the estate of the late Patrick Kallaher, wealthy Memphis man, who, according to Miss Quirk, was under promise to bequeath her his fortune in return for her promise not to wed during his lifetime.

Miss Quirk said Kallaher won her promise to marry him in 1892 while she was a student in Milwaukee. At that time Miss Quirk was 16 and Kallaher 32. Parental objections prevailed, Miss Quirk explained, but during the twenty years until Kallaher's death in 1912 his courtship continued, and she never wed.

Claim to his estate was set up in her behalf, but this was contested by his relatives.

Positively

LAST 2 Days...

The greatest sale of all wool made to measure suits and overcoats will positively close Thursday evening at 8. Order or reserve your Easter suit or topcoat at these rock bottom prices. A small deposit will reserve any garment until Easter.

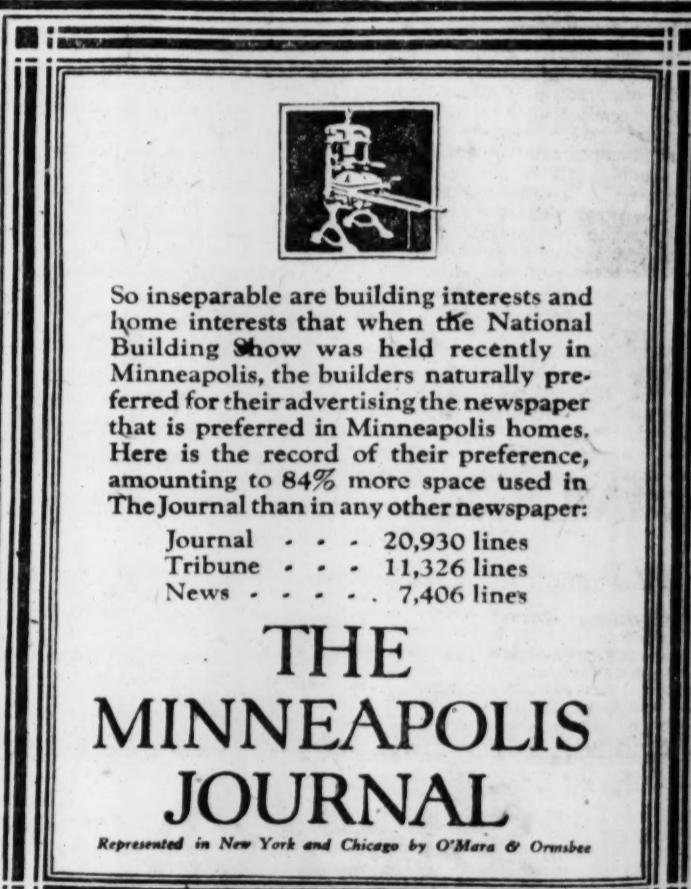

Don't delay one minute because the fine woolens offered during this sensational reduced price sale are all but gone—in fact, but 78 bolts remain. It's never been so easy to buy such materials at such prices. Over 300 patterns to select from. And every garment is made exactly to your measure—and guaranteed to fit. Your money back if it doesn't. Remember, Thursday is the last day—better stop in now and inspect the fine woolens. Reliable Tailors since 1884.

Extra Pants Free With Suit or Overcoat

Our special daylight lighting makes evening selection easy. Call tonight if you can't make it today.

SELL BROS
TAILORS SINCE 1884
31-39 W. JACKSON
Opposite Great Northern Hotel.

Journal • • 20,930 lines

Tribune • • 11,326 lines

News • • 7,406 lines

THE MINNEAPOLIS
JOURNAL
Represented in New York and Chicago by O'Mara & Ormsbee

DANDERINE

Stops Hair Coming Out; Thickens, Beautifies.

HIS MASTERS VOICE
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

This trademark and the trademarked word "Victrola" identify all our products. Look under the lid! Look on the label!

VICTROLA TALKING MACHINE CO.
Camden, N. J.

Camden, N. J.

Grandmother Knew

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds
as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Gently relieved and relieved must plaster is made without the blisters and without the blisters.

Now it doesn't. It is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it is not only a mustard, yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the fingers, then let it dry, and the pain disappears.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, rheumatism, neuralgia, pains and aches of the back, neck or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, children's colds, and other ills. Musterole often prevents pneumonia.

35 and 65c jars; hospital size, $2.00.

MUSTEROLE
WILL NOT BLISTER

Genuine Musterole 107 pieces — decoration and Reduced from $12.00

Many other offered AT S REDUCTION of "Limoges"

Burley
QUALITY CH
Seven North ESTA

Victrola
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
Victrola Talking Machine Co., Camden, N. J.

MYSTERIOUS FOE MAKES CHICAGO ART HIS TARGET

Letters Work of Insane Man, Hickson Says.

UNDRESSED

Astronomers to See Saturn Tonight Without His Rings.

A RINGLESS SATURN

By ELEANOR JEWETT.
An exceedingly cheerful meeting was had last night in the clubrooms of the Art Institute by the Chicago Chapter of the League Society of Artists. Metaphorically speaking, they should have been groveling in the dust, abused by the supercilious showered upon them by an unidentified man who signs himself "Just One."

Out of the east he came, presumably to seek fame. Refused admittance at the gates of artistic glory here, in revenge he has launched a single hand-campaign to drive the painters of Chicago into national disrepute. This, at least, is the story of the anonymous letters, addressed in a man's printed hand, to all the prominent artists, critics, museums, art galleries, and art journals of the country, calling for line the terrible shortcomings of our most famous workers.

He Hands It to Us.

Of Chicago art he says: "Taken as a whole, this show (meaning the Chicago exhibit now on at the Art Institute) indicates a low condition of artisanship. . . . There is evidence of a low artistic standard. How many of the artists can draw? Almost none—the average magazine illustrator could put in over the average of 50 per cent in drawing." Of the artists individually, by the kindly critic finds this to say:

Palmer—Very "nice," but as personality, no intensity, no symmetry.

Edward B. Butler—Paints a "regular" landscape in amateurish fashion.

Wallace L. De Wolf: Rankest of amateur work.

Victor Higgins: Unfortunately, his pictures give an impression of triviality.

Frederick M. Grant: Some personality, no intensity, a very little art.

Louis Hartshorn: All perspiration and no inspiration.

Irene Kohn: Cleverness without art.

Charles W. Dahlgreen: A trace of art.

Frank V. Dudley: His composition is okay.

"Work of Insane Man"—Hickson.

The only artists "Just One" can bring himself to praise are those who are beginners in art. To these he grants a modicum of paternally friendly criticism.

Dr. W. J. Hickson, head of the psychiatric bureau of the Municipal

AT ITS BEST

The strongest compliment ever paid to

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is the vain attempts at imitation.

Those who take cod-liver oil at its best, take Scott's Emulsion.

Scott & Sons, Bloomfield, N. J.

SPARGO DEPICTS HENRY FORD AS 'PAUPER OF SOUL'

The materials used by Henry Ford in his attack on the Jewish race echo the outrages made by the Black Hundred under the régime of Czar Nicholas II., and confront us with a state of affairs subversive of every American tradition and every distinctly American institution and ideal.

John Spargo, Socialist author of New York, formerly of the industrial relations commission, made this remark last night in a speech before 5,000 Chicago Jews at Sinai temple.

"Henry Ford is poverty stricken, intellectually, morally, and spiritually," the speaker declared. "No more pitiful figure can be found in our history. With all his material wealth he is poorer than the poorest wretch to be found in the bread lines of this city. His poverty of soul is so great that he is incapable of partaking of the American spirit.

"Witnessing Shameful Spectacle."

"Now we are witnessing the shameful spectacle of an organized campaign of hatred and calumny against the Jews of America, a campaign having for its object the creation of a terrible and dangerous antagonism between Americans, an antagonism founded upon racial and religious differences. Such a campaign cannot be accurately described as other than a dangerous desecration of American ideals."

"In private life, that is to say, its leaders have not hesitated to seize upon the occasion of the anniversary of Lincoln's birth to besmirch his resplendent fame and glorious memory. Instead of seeing in the war of secession the result of a conflict of economic and political systems, these men have spread broadcast through the land the infamous charge that the fatal struggle was deliberately brought about by Jewish interests for the accomplishment of Jewish purposes."

"No foul slander of America that emanated from the gutter press of Berlin during the war matched the infamy of this."

Success Means Pogroms, He Says.

"The success of the campaign of the Dearborn Independent would mean pogroms against the Jews in America, let there be no mistake upon that point. Fortunately, there is not likelihood of that success occurring, for the good sense of the Gentile population of America is a bulwark against which the hordes of the underworld must fall. We shall beat the anti-Semitism to its knees and crush it, because it is a menace to the America we love and an affront to everything in which we take pride."

Mr. Spargo referred to the charge that the Jews were responsible for the Socialist movement and continued: "The ignorance of Henry Ford upon all that pertains to American history is a matter of court record. Were he less ignorant of history he would know that the charge thus leveled against the Socialist movement has been leveled against almost every great modern movement of protest. It was made against the Protestant reformation, against the French revolution, against Maximilien and his followers in Italy, against the German revolutionaries of 1848, against trade unionists in England.

Denies Bolshevik Charge.

"The Dearborn Independent, like all the rest of the anti-Semitic press of both hemispheres, charges the Bolsheviks in Russia and elsewhere is a movement instigated and led by Jews as part of the conspiracy to bring about the Jewish domination of the world.

"There is not a single Jew connected with the Bolshevik movement in Russia in any prominent capacity who is not a scoundrel, having renounced all the faith and ties of Israel. There is not one of them who ever took the slightest part in the affairs of the Russian Jewry."

Lawyer Taken on Charge of Larceny by Bailee

Louis H. Marks, 50 years old, a lawyer, $351. Ingleside av., was arrested last night on complaint of Lou Lewinson, 150 North Wells street, who charges Marks with larceny by bailee. Levinson refused to specify just what Marks had done but said he had formerly been secretary and treasurer of the Union Shoe Repairers of Illinois.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

Square post will hold a patriotic commander of Sol-Sai-Mar post. The annual meeting will be held on March 4 in room 1128 county building.

John P. Tansey has been elected

With the war most of us acquired a new word—propaganda.

The word is new and convenient, but the action it connotes is another phase of our old friend advertising.

Most people think of advertising as calculated to sell goods.

Only of recent years have we seen advertising used to sell ideas.

If it is desired to stop unnecessary coughing in the theatre, — to promote courtesy on the telephone, — to brush the teeth or — to create a national demand for the metric system, it may be accomplished by advertising.

If you want to sell goods, services or ideas to a nation—advertise nationally.

Butterick—Publishers
The Delineator
($2.50 a Year)
The Designer
($2.00 a Year)

1921 Will Reward FIGHTERS

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

This is the Last Week of February Sales for the Home

FROM Lamp Shades and Desk Sets, on the Second Floor, up to Kitchen Furniture on the Ninth, Sections specializing in home-gear have been offering important savings all through February. This week is the last opportunity for many a fine saving—reductions throughout the various Sections in which there are February Sales seem to be accentuated by the fact that they will soon be unavailable.

THE FEBRUARY SALES

Lamp and Candle Shades Dinnware, Stemware Metal Beds, Mattresses Picture Frames and Framing Pillows, Bed Springs Smoking Sets
Desk Sets Book Ends Comforters Domestic Rugs Furniture
Kitchen Furniture and Refrigerators

Reductions Affect Drapery Work

Every order taken this month is subject to reduction; if we supply material, reduction applies to both work and material.

Fifth Floor.

February Sale of Kitchen Furniture

All Refrigerators, Fireless Cookers, Ranges, Kitchen Cabinets, Tables, Chairs, and Stools, reduced this month. Household Utilities, Ninth Floor.

Sale of Metal Beds and Bedding

FOUR-POSTER Bed, mahogany, birch, regular sizes; drop sides; bronzed steel rails; $38.75.

All Mattresses and Pillows, Springs, etc., subject to February Sale Prices. Ninth Floor.

As a Fitting Finale to the Sale of Furniture

Hundreds of Reed and Fiber Samples Priced Low

THE entire sample line of a manufacturer has been bought and placed on our Eighth Floor, to be closed out immediately. Every piece is fresh and new—many of them are designs new this season—all are of superior grade. There are brown, ivory, and vari-colored enamel finishes; many of the seating pieces are upholstered with tapestry, cretonne, or velours; there is a rich and very diverse group of pieces, as well as of designs in each piece.

In most cases there is but one of a kind—it will be advisable to choose early.

Brown reed Magazine Stand, $12. (7)

Brown reed Work Stand, $7.

Cream Shellac Armchair, cretonne cushions, $14.75. (6)

Brown reed Armchair, cretonne cushions, $19.50. (10)

Brown fiber Davenport, tapestry seat and back cushions, $24.50. (9)

Brown fiber Rocker, tapestry seat and back cushions, $22.50.

Brown fiber Wing Chair, $26.50. (14)

Ivory reed Davenport, cretonne cushions seat and back, $57.50. (4)

Ivory reed Desk, $20. (13)

Old ivory Desk, $28.75.

Brown reed Fernery, $9.75. (5)

Brown reed Armchair, $17.75. (17)

Brown fiber Arm Rocker, $7.75. (16)

Table, round, $6.75.

Chaise, Longue, tapestry seat and back cushions, $36. (2)

Brown reed Cage & Stand, $16.50. (1)

Odd Pieces of Bedroom and Dining Room Furniture

AT this date there are literally dozens of pieces of Furniture on our floors, left from Suites which have been sold as separate pieces in the heavy business of the February Sale.

Prices on them have been reduced without regard to purchase price, replacement, or any other condition, except the necessity to clear them at once.

In many cases there is but one piece of a kind—in others, there are but a few pieces of one model.

There is a Sheraton China Cabinet, in walnut, at $65.

A Sideboard to match this piece is $85. 66 inches long.

A Louis XVI Sideboard in walnut, 66 inches long, is $85.

China Cabinet to match at $58.

A Serving Table, of walnut, in a desirable design, is $35.

These are mentioned as merely representative of dozens of similar values.

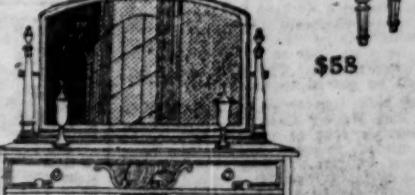

Odd pieces are shown at greatly reduced prices—an opportunity to make up some missing piece for the Suite you have. Many of these pieces will fit in well anywhere.

Mahogany Dressing Table, Louis XVI design, $65.

Bed, Dresser, and Dressing Table of American walnut, remarkably low priced. Bed, full or twin size, $58; Dresser, 48 in., $85; Dressing Table, $38.

Chiffonier, in walnut, very greatly reduced, $58.

Third Floor, Wabash Avenue

Finest Wilton Rugs 9 x 12—at $115 In February Sale Domestic Rugs

BEST quality Wilton Rugs, 9 x 12, at $115—that is the most important part of the February Sale. Splendid patterns, rich coloring.

In addition, American and Imported Wiltons of other qualities, Loom-Tufted Rugs, Axminsters, and Velvets in various grades, patterns, and colorings.

Third Floor, Wabash Avenue

$85

MYSTERIOUS FOE MAKES CHICAGO ART HIS TARGET

Letters Work of Insane Man, Hickson Says.

UNDRESSED

Astronomers to See Saturn Tonight Without His Rings.

A RINGLESS SATURN

By ELEANOR JEWETT.
An exceedingly cheerful meeting was had last night in the clubrooms of the Art Institute by the Chicago Chapter of the League Society of Artists. Metaphorically speaking, they should have been groveling in the dust, abused by the supercilious showered upon them by an unidentified man who signs himself "Just One."

Out of the east he came, presumably to seek fame. Refused admittance at the gates of artistic glory here, in revenge he has launched a single hand-campaign to drive the painters of Chicago into national disrepute. This, at least, is the story of the anonymous letters, addressed in a man's printed hand, to all the prominent artists, critics, museums, art galleries, and art journals of the country, calling for line the terrible shortcomings of our most famous workers.

He Hands It to Us.

Of Chicago art he says: "Taken as a whole, this show (meaning the Chicago exhibit now on at the Art Institute) indicates a low condition of artisanship. . . . There is evidence of a low artistic standard. How many of the artists can draw? Almost none—the average magazine illustrator could put in over the average of 50 per cent in drawing." Of the artists individually, by the kindly critic finds this to say:

Palmer—Very "nice," but as personality, no intensity, no symmetry.

Edward B. Butler—Paints a "regular" landscape in amateurish fashion.

Wallace L. De Wolf: Rankest of amateur work.

Victor Higgins: Unfortunately, his pictures give an impression of triviality.</

EAGER CUB KIDS LAND HERE EARLY FOR COAST JAUNT

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

There is an eagerness and enthusiasm among ball players for the coming season that hasn't been shown since the days before the war. Young players of the Cubs began assembling here yesterday, the start of a training trip, though the advance guard under the direction of Manager Evers isn't to leave until Thursday noon.

At the same time, President Veeck announced that there was less trouble than ever in signing the men to contracts, all but three now being in the fold, and they are likely to be on hand in plenty of time.

O'Farrell and Weaver.

Among those now here for the start Thursday are Bob O'Farrell, the young catcher with the best arm in the league, and Harry Weaver, the recruit pitcher, who is back for a second trial with the team. The office of the Cub office filled with high spirits over the prospects of a great year. O'Farrell came down from Waukegan, where he passed the winter, and after a few minutes' talk with Boss Veeck signed a contract.

Weaver was already fixed up on his contract, but came on here from the east to be plenty sure. He was so sure and decided he was anxious to get a ball in his hand and start hurling. He displayed an unusually good curve the other time he was up, and, though not a large fellow, he has the physique to make good in big league circles.

First Squad Goes Thursday.

There will be about fifteen or sixteen players on the train that leaves Thursday. There will be about fourteen more to go out a week later, and there are several, including Jim Vaughn and George Alexander, already at work at Catalina Island. Evers and his scout, Jack Doyle, will be in charge of the advance party, with Trainer Brady on hand to rub the kinks out of the sore muscles.

Whether Evers is to have an assistant on the field this season hasn't been decided. However, he will have valuable assistance from the veteran Mr. Doyle, who works at camp and Jack intends to put on a uniform for the first time in twelve years to aid Johnny in training the youngsters.

Doyle to Help First Sacker.

Doyle will be especially valuable in assisting the first basemen, of whom there are about four or five. Doyle was a great first baseman twenty years ago and before that one of the best catchers in the game. Last season he did the scouting for the Cubs and is slated for the same work this summer.

KAUFF MUST FACE TRIAL IN GOTHAM

New York, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Benny Kauff, the Giants' outfielder, will have to go to trial the last week of this month or early in March on the charge of having stolen an automobile.

Assistant District Attorney Sullivan moved this morning before Judge Mulgrew in General Sessions that the case of Kauff be placed on the calendar.

Kauff was indicted Feb. 19, 1920, on the charge of the theft of an automobile, which is alleged, he sold to an automobile broker.

Cards Find Fine Weather on Arriving in Texas

Orange, Tex., Feb. 21.—[Special.]—The first contingent of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball club, comprising eight players, was greeted by the balmy of weather on the first day of spring training here today. Capt. Bert Shotton has the following men in training:

Pitchers Fred Schupp, Mike Kercher, Jim Barnes, and Jake May; catchers, Vernon James and Law; and the rest of the team.

BRUCK SECOND IN ELKS PIN EVENT

Toledo, O., Feb. 21.—La. Elips and Erol of Milwaukee, bowing on the last squad in the Elks' national bowling tournament here today, rolled into first place in the doubles with 1,219. Zietzman and Blouin of Chicago went into third place with 1,173. McCullough and Harkness of Indianapolis finished second with 1,142.

Bruck of Chicago rolled 650 in the singles today, taking second place.

First place was won by Friedman of Detroit with 667. Harkness of Indianapolis won the all-events championship with 1,251. Jimmy Smith of Milwaukee finished second with 1,180.

Gordon Elks of Detroit, with 2,764, won the five-man event.

NOTES OF THE CUE ROOM.

In the pocket tournament at Foley's Ross Motor Inn, Fred Barnes and Eddie Barnes and Tarnay play tonight.

The national amateur class A three cushion tournament at the New York Recreation Club, Detroit, starting March 28.

Harry Daw, class A champion of Detroit, is a prospective starter in the national amateur class A tournament at the Chicago Athletic Association March 7.

In a Chicago Billiard League game at the Chicago Club, defeated League 50 to 36.

Two games are scheduled for tonight. Schaefer and Jettie play at Schaefer's and Harry and Eddie play at the Chicago Club.

Harry Cohen defeated Ben Gordon, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

Harry Cohen, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

John Schaefer, 35 to 32, in their first round for the junior three cushion tournament at the Chicago Club.

It's listed

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE: TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1921.

** 11

CITY'S SPORTDOM AT CHARITY MAT EVENTS TONIGHT

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

When Referee Martin Delaney calls Jack Reynolds and Spyros Vorres to the center of the ring at the Coliseum tonight for the first bout of the charity show to be conducted by Mrs. Marshall Field, III, enthusiasts of every branch of athletic endeavor will be present to help the worthy cause.

Followers of athletics and the men actually engaged in the field of amateur sports have been among the first to offer aid in the cause of necessity. Tonight they will be given another opportunity to show their sportsmanship by aiding the thousands of crippled children in Chicago and Cook county institutions, which will be the beneficiaries of the show. Mrs. Field wants it understood that every $2, $3, $5 and $10 seat will go 100 cents on the dollar to the institutions. The box sale and program advertising will take care of the expense.

Logo Boxes on Sale Today.

An announcement was made yesterday by Mrs. Field that logo boxes are being erected just behind the regular boxes. The boxes will be placed on sale today at prices ranging from $10 to $15. In addition there still are many choice sets unopened, which can be purchased at the Coliseum after 7 o'clock this evening and during the day at headquarters, Randolph street and Michigan avenue; The Hub, and Bloom's cigar store, 129 North Dearborn street.

Unlike former shows, there will be a time limit to all contests. If a fall is secured in any match within the first half an hour the principals will wrestle to a finish, but not more than three falls. If no fall takes place inside half an hour the men will grapple for a full hour. Then they will wrestle fifteen more minutes, when a decision will be given.

Vorres One of Chicago's Best.

The first bout will bring together Spyros Vorres, one of the greatest amateur wrestlers ever developed in Chicago, and Jack Reynolds of Cedar Rapids, Ia. They will grapple for the victory.

Johns, Masters, middleweight champion, generally recognized as one of the most versatile performers in the game, will defend his title against Lou Talaber, local wrestler of no mean ability. Although Talaber took the match on four days notice, he is confident of giving the champion the battle of his career.

John Peck, Iowa farmer, and Jim Lopis, the Greek, will lock hold on the other two in the light heavyweight bout.

Work Out at C. A. A.

Peck and Talaber worked out yesterday at the Chicago A. A., while the other grapplers took light workouts at different places.

Doors at the Coliseum will open at 7 o'clock. The 1st field artillery band of twenty-eight pieces will furnish music before the first bout, which will start at 8:30 o'clock, and between falls.

MANAGER HELD FOR TAKING COIN OF DEAD BOXER

Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 21.—James Kub of Newark, who is charged with having taken a sum of $100 from the mother of Raymond McMullan, known as "Mickey" Shanahan, who died after a bout last December with Al Roberts.

Kohl, who had been McMullan's manager, said the boxer's share of the bout was only $128, after deducting commissions and expenses, and that it had been paid to the mother. He was held in $100 bail.

JIMMY RYAN SERIOUSLY ILL

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 21.—Jimmy Ryan, prominent middleweight in the boy bare knuckle fighters, is seriously ill in a hospital here. A call has been made for volunteers to submit to blood transfusion in an effort to save his life.

Ryan's last appearance in the ring here was with Dominic McCaffrey about sixteen years ago. He fought a seven round draw here with Jack Dempsey, the "Nonpareil," in 1884, and two years later was knocked out by the same man in the fourth round.

Ted Jamieson Stopped by McCarthy in Boston Mill

Boston, Mass., Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Pat McCarthy of Boston was given the decision over Ted Jamieson of Milwaukee in the fourth round tonight. In the third McCarthy opened a cut under Jamieson's eye and when it came time for the fourth round Eddie Mack, manager of Jamieson, wouldn't let his man continue and the referee awarded the bout to McCarthy.

BURMAN AND MOORE TO FIGHT.

Tulsa, Okla., Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Joe Burman and Roy Moore were matched today to twelve rounds here March 1.

Two or seventy-five miles an hour!
The National Sixty is master of them both, with sure, silent steam.

National Motor Sales Co. of Chicago
8315 Michigan Ave.
Tel. Victory 8077

National 2nd Successful Year

WITH THE BIG FELLOWS IN NEW YORK RING

[Photo by the Daily News, New York's Picture Newspaper.]

Bob Martin driving Bill Brennan back and aiming left for stomach in recent Madison Square Garden bout. A preliminary to one of the scrimmages in which the Chicago boxer realized he had a tough customer to conquer. The photographer was in the gallery 150 feet from the ring and grabbed this picture through clouds of tobacco smoke.

TribuneDecisions

Decisions of Tribune boxing representatives are:

At Dayton, O.—Benny Leonard stopped Eddie Moy [3].

At Boston—Pat McCarthy beat Ted Jamieson [14].

At Philadelphia—Kid Williams beat Abe Atell [Goldstein 18]. Irish Paty Gline beat Johnny Summers [18].

At Detroit—Tony Zili stopped Don Curley [12]. Chuck Wilson and Jimmie Zili, drew [10].

At Baltimore—Tommy Loughlin beat Al Nelson [16].

At Milwaukee—Johny Mendelsohn beat Eddie Hammer [10].

At New York—Battling Ortega beat George Chip [15]. Frankie Bell beat Eddie White [10].

At Louis—Kewpie Calender beat Artie Simmons [8].

RICKARD WANTS KANSAS TO MEET CHAMP LEONARD

New York, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Tex Rickard announced today that he was trying to arrange a match between Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and Rocky Kansas, for March 17 at Madison Square garden. This was the date originally set for the proposed Dempsey-Willard bout. Kansas gave the doppers a genuine surprise in Buffalo the other night by knocking out Ritchie Mitchell in the first round with some well directed slams on the chin, which drove Mitchell out of a chance for some fat purses.

U. OF MINNESOTA TO HOLD BOXING TITLE TOURNEY

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 21.—All around boxing tournament to determine the champions of the various divisions will be staged at the University of Minnesota the last week in March, it was announced yesterday. The survivors of the semi-finals will meet in a four round match in April.

More than 300 students are learning the science of self-defense from a boxing instructor.

Ever Hammer Bumped by Johnny Mendelsohn

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Johnny Mendelsohn of Milwaukee won every round in his ten round fight with Ever Hammer of Chicago before the Milwaukee A. C. tonight. Hammer was in distress in the closing rounds.

R&V Knight

Economy—Efficiency Elegance
The R & V Knight
Sixes and Fours on display at our Show Rooms. No carbon troubles; no valve grinding.
Demonstration Without Obligation.

R&V MOTOR CO.
2247 Michigan Ave. Calumet 5827

THE GUMPS—THE KING PASSES

BOB GARDNER IS LOST TO U. S. GOLF TEAM FOR TRIP TO ENGLAND

BY JOE DAVIS.

When the team of amateur golfers captained by William C. Powne Jr. sails for England to compete in the British amateur championship in May, Robert A. Gardner of Chicago will not be in the party.

The popular Chicago golfer, who last year was runner-up in the British classic, feels he cannot spare the time to make a second trip and has notified Capt. Powne to that effect.

ROB GARDNER. [Tribune Photo.]

Bob Gardner, who last year was runner-up in the British classic, feels he cannot spare the time to make a second trip and has notified Capt. Powne to that effect.

LANE TRIMS WALLER TWICE.

Lane scored a procession in their two north section matches against Waller, winning by 25 to 11 and the other, Merkin and Scott, by a run-off.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Waller, 17, of Oak Park, was the big game played from the opening whistle.

Here Chickie, Chickie, Have a Little Rat Poison

"CHICKENS."
Produced by Thomas Inc.
Directed by Jack Nathan
THE CAST
Deems Stanwood..... Douglas MacLean
Julia Stanwood..... Gladys George
Aun's Rebecca..... Claire McDowell
Dan Bellows..... Charles Maites
Hill..... Frank McHugh
Willie Foy..... Raymond Cannon
Philip Thawson..... Willie Marks
Decker..... Al Filson

By Mae Tinée.

If you live in the suburbs or chance to have a speaking acquaintance with anybody who does live in the suburbs, you know what everybody except the most confirmed cityites is talking about:

Chickens! You say it's a nice morning. Whom ever you mention the fact to, with the possible exception of the exception named above, agrees absent-mindedly. Then, quite likely, his face lights up.

It says he knows it was a nice morning because his chickens woke him up with their crowing. Fine bunch of eggs that morning.

Whether interested or not, you ask him what kind of chickens has he? He tells you. And he'll tell you all the barnyard talk he can think of about his ancestors, and their progeny. He gives you minute details as to making 'em lay, breaking them of setting, treating them for pip, lice, waderlust, and unfaithfulness. When you leave him you have everything about chickens at your fingers' ends. If he has his way about it, except the crow.

All of which is most apropos, though it may not seem so, to the discussion of Mr. MacLean's new picture.

Deems Stanwood, being bowled over by a pair of eyes belonging to a young woman interested in the chicken business, goes into the poultry business on the ranch next door. His performance is only the beginning behind his back, which is immense. His experiences are strange and unusual. Funny, too, and bound to intrigue you if you like Mr. MacLean and his pollywog miseries.

Though Doris May is conspicuous by her absence, Gladys George makes a pleasing substitute. For members of the cast are all clever girls, and the subject matter of "Chickens" is bright, snappy, and well put on. But there's always a but, isn't there?

If you're a chicken fancier, don't follow too closely the rules of the game suggested in this picture. Rat poison MAY give the clucking darlings pep and make 'em lay—but I don't believe it!

HAROLD TEEN—AND HAROLD KNOWS WHEREOF HE SPEAKS!

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—The coat dress is securing a tremendous amount of attention. In the spring months when the wrap may be dismissed from our consideration, this costume will claim an even wider prestige. For nothing is smarter for street wear than the coat dress with furs. Today we show one of the new coat dresses carried out in Havana brown velvet, trimmed only with tiny cordings of self material. The plaited sections on the hips, together with the arrangement of the waistline, are both worthy of special attention.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." Address Embarrassing Moment, Chicago Tribune. Write on one side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

Short Lived Enthusiasm.

It was during a critical moment at a college debate. The auditorium was filled to its capacity with intense listeners. The last speaker, on the side which was evidently losing, made a sudden clever statement, which seemed to turn the scales. Cheered over by my enthusiasm, I forgot I was not at a football game, and yelled, "Atta boy," in the loudest voice I could muster. The cry froze on my lips, as in the sudden stillness that followed, with all eyes turned on me. I came back to earth. T.M.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Grapefruit Salad.

Grapefruits are today a distinctly American fruit. To use them in any but the simplest way seems to me much like trying to dress up the rose, but grapefruit pulp does harmonize well with orange and the bleached endive—French and German—and white lettuce, and this combination may be put together so as to have a general appearance resembling that of a fine pile of curled lettuce.

However, candied cherries, criss-crosses of red and green pepper, or pimento are much used with it, but any except a true artist should avoid any elaborate thing of this type.

It is not easy to get whole skinless sections of grapefruit, but when it is to be combined with other fruit this is often desirable. The five or six seeds at the heart of a section must be removed and they leave that skin unpeeled, but if sections of skinned grapefruit alternate with those of orange similarly prepared, the lapsing of the sections will cover up that ragged edge. The line where the two different fruits meet may be emphasized with pimento if desired.

To get these sections it is necessary to "take off" the rind of the grapefruit in the same way one peels an orange. The white part is so thick that it will split, and only part come off with the yellow. The white part will be blanked like pines, disclosing the divisions of the fruit.

Separate into sections and peel. The membranes on the sides come off readily, on the back of a section with difficulty. It can be left on, but it is bitter. The pulp is both sweet and sour, but not bitter. These sections rolled in sugar may substitute for a sweetmeat. One or two of them are refreshing after afternoon tea.

It is not easy to get whole skinless sections of grapefruit, but when it is to be combined with other fruit this is often desirable. The five or six seeds at the heart of a section

Parents to Meet New School Principal

The Parent-Teachers' association of Nettelhorst school will introduce Alfred E. Loris, the recently appointed principal, to parents and friends Friday night. Mrs. J. H. Francis of the Healy school will discuss the "Parent-Teacher Problem" and Mr. Logie will present plans by which the parent and teacher will cooperate in developing and presenting them in every boy and girl. Faculty and pupils will present a musical program.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

Decidedly All Wrong.

Dear Miss Blake: We are two girls of 17 years. We are in love with two boys and we were wondering if it would be all right to tell them of our two boys. Answer as soon as possible, please, as we are anxious to know.

H. and C.

You girls come here some day and bring along a good stout branch of the old birch tree, and I will endeavor to impress upon you what I think of two frivolic youngsters with eloquent ideas in their heads.

Yours truly,

Doris Blake, Tribune, Chicago.

The Tribune will pay $1 for each childlike saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unsolicited contributions. Please print on one side of the paper. Address Bright Sayings to Aunty Bee, Tribune, Chicago.

My neighbor has a boy who is in the habit of running errands for some of us.

One day I asked him to go and get me a loaf of bread. On his return I asked him what I owed him—penny.

He said, "O, no, I goes for two pennies now."

E.K.

The writing teacher visited school one day and found one exceptionally good writer in the class.

The teacher said: "Clark is going to be a good business man. Is your father a business man?" What does he do?"

Clark replied: "My youngest father works in an office, and my grandfather does, too."

G. D.

You are doing the important thing by giving the elderly man a home, and I truly deserve what little assistance can be given you.

Mrs. G.

"I am taking in an old man, 80 years old, to give him a home, and will try to make things as happy for him in his old days as best I can. But I cannot afford at present to buy him any clothes which he needs badly, so I am appealing to you to intercede to your readers. If any one has an old suit of clothes, size 40 to 42, or a pair of shoes, size 7½, or anything you can wear to help out, we will be grateful. He will call for them himself. I have a great number of magazines that any one may have who cares to call them."

E.K.

"I am taking in an old man, 80 years old, to give him a home, and will try to make things as happy for him in his old days as best I can. But I cannot afford at present to buy him

any clothes which he needs badly, so

I am appealing to you to intercede

to your readers. If any one has an old suit of clothes, size 40 to 42, or a pair of shoes, size 7½, or anything you can wear to help out, we will be grateful.

He will call for them himself. I have a great number of magazines that any one may have who cares to call them."

Mrs. G.

"I am taking in an old man, 80 years old, to give him a home, and will try to make things as happy for him

in his old days as best I can. But I cannot afford at present to buy him

any clothes which he needs badly, so

I am appealing to you to intercede

to your readers. If any one has an old suit of clothes, size 40 to 42, or a pair of shoes, size 7½, or anything you can wear to help out, we will be grateful.

He will call for them himself. I have a great number of magazines that any one may have who cares to call them."

Mrs. G.

"I am taking in an old man, 80 years old, to give him a home, and will try to make things as happy for him

in his old days as best I can. But I cannot afford at present to buy him

any clothes which he needs badly, so

I am appealing to you to intercede

to your readers. If any one has an old suit of clothes, size 40 to 42, or a pair of shoes, size 7½, or anything you can wear to help out, we will be grateful.

He will call for them himself. I have a great number of magazines that any one may have who cares to call them."

Mrs. G.

"I am taking in an old man, 80 years old, to give him a home, and will try to make things as happy for him

in his old days as best I can. But I cannot afford at present to buy him

any clothes which he needs badly, so

I am appealing to you to intercede

to your readers. If any one has an old suit of clothes, size 40 to 42, or a pair of shoes, size 7½, or anything you can wear to help out, we will be grateful.

He will call for them himself. I have a great number of magazines that any one may have who cares to call them."

Mrs. G.

"I am taking in an old man, 80 years old, to give him a home, and will try to make things as happy for him

in his old days as best I can. But I cannot afford at present to buy him

any clothes which he needs badly, so

I am appealing to you to intercede

to your readers. If any one has an old suit of clothes, size 40 to 42, or a pair of shoes, size 7½, or anything you can wear to help out, we will be grateful.

He will call for them himself. I have a great number of magazines that any one may have who cares to call them."

Mrs. G.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

WOMAN'S HOUSE DRESS

This is one piece dress and can be made attractive by having the front pocket, and cuff facings of something like a pique—if the dress is to be made of some wash material.

The pattern, 9716, comes in sizes 26 to 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 re-

NEWS OF SOCIETY

Mrs. Marshall Field's Show Will Attract Society Folk Tonight

Although Mrs. Marshall Field III, and her committee will have it understood that the wrestling matches at the Coliseum tonight are to be quite democratic, society is taking a keen interest in the brand new sensation, and there promises to be a brilliant social gathering. The affair is being staged for the benefit of the Country Home for Convalescent Children, the Home for Destitute and Crippled Children, and St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum. It will be difficult, and the social register families for informal dress will be the rule around the ringside.

Dinner parties preceding the bouts will be given at the Casino by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Viles and Mr. and Mrs. Winton L. Ames Jr.

Assisting Mrs. Field will be Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, Mrs. William J. Chalmers, Mrs. George D. McLaughlin, Miss Agnes Foreman, Frederic McLaughlin, Stanley Field, Robert A. Gardner, Donald M. Ryerson, Major A. A. Sprague, and Harold E. Foreman.

Among the guests at a dinner given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stedman Robinson at their residence, 1820 Ridge Avenue, Evanston, for Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Farnham Greene, were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Buffington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, and Theodore W. Robinson. Following the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Riew of 217 Dempster street, Evanston, gave a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Greene, at which there were about 200 guests. Mr. Greene is president of the board of trustees of Wellesley College. He is making a tour of the country in the interest of the Wellesley drive.

Mrs. John Wilson Emond of 83 East Division street will give a children's party from 2 until 5 o'clock today for her daughter, Idon May. Washington's birthday is also the birthday of the small hostess.

About 300 women attended the lecture given yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Frederick D. Countess, 1524 Lake Shore Drive, under auspices of the Bryn Mawr and Vassar clubs of Chicago. Dr. Frank W. Gundersen spoke on "The New East, the Highway of Old World Culture and Mystery."

The second of a series of lectures on "Current Affairs and Literary Reviews" will be given today at 11 o'clock by Mrs. Anthony French Merrill at the Woman's Athletic club.

The Science of Government Today" will be the subject of a lecture by Mr. Morrissey at 8 o'clock today at the residence of Mrs. James H. Douglass, 40th Woodland avenue.

Mrs. Edward Morris of 4805 Drexel boulevard will open her house for a tea to be given from 4 until 6 o'clock today by the Kenwood Social Service club. Guests are asked to bring articles for which they no longer have any use. These will be sold at the Thrift shop at Fifty-eighth street and Harper avenue, maintained by the club for the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago.

Among the patrollers for the ball of the Chicago Lying-In Hospital Alumni association at the Cooper-Carlton hotel tonight are the Mesdames Kellogg Fairbank, Richard T. Crane Jr., Morris L. Johnston, William R. Hall, Ernest P. Hartman, William A. Niles, Ernest French, W. H. H. H. Joseph Fish, Carl Meyer, Hugo Hartman, Ogden T. McClurg, William C. Ryden, Edward F. Swift, Claude G. Hopkins and Robert P. Lamont, and the Misses Mary Waller and M. E. Greenbaum.

Mrs. Jacob Baur is planning to go to Washington for the inauguration of President Harding.

Lecture Today at Central Y. W.

Miss Lella Houghaling of the Haymarket district of the United Charities, will talk of her work as a district superintendent at Central Y. W. C. A. 69 East Monroe street, today at 11 a. m. This is the second lecture of a course of five during Lent.

Frat Dinner Postponed.

Psi Omega fraternity has postponed the dinner scheduled tomorrow night at the Sherman house until the following Wednesday.

Coming March 22—Sensational Aphrodite

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—[Special]—Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo and Miss Helen Woodrow Jones have come from New York and are guests of the president and Mrs. Wilson. Miss Margaret Wilson is also at the White House.

Mrs. James McDonald has recalled invitations for the dinner she was to give this evening and also for the dinner on March 12 in honor of the British ambassador and Lady Geddes. Mrs. McDonald left last night for Chicago, where she will stay until the death of her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Fallon. Mrs. McDonald's son, Arthur Bradley Campbell, will join her in Chicago and return here next week.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Feb. 21.—[Special]—Mrs. Walter Damrosch will give a reception with music tomorrow at her home, 147 East Sixty-first street, for Lady Dean Paul.

A bridge party will be held by members of the American Committee for Devastated France on Friday at the Plaza hotel. Miss Gabrielle Gould, 18, is being assisted by Miss Elizabeth Perkins, Mrs. Carlton Chapman, and Mrs. John Larkin.

COGNAC

Henry Swislowsky, pianist, will give a daily delightful program, assisted by the Misses Camerer and Hammond.

At 1 and 2 o'clock daily admission without charge.

Lyon & Healy Hall

Wabash Ave. at Jackson

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER. Simper Figures the Percentage.

Mischa Levitzki Gives Piano Recital in Orchestra Hall

To Marry Curate

South Side Girl is Engaged to Episcopal Minister.

BY RUTH MILLER.

Mischa Levitzki may need such hirsute aid as is afforded by a toupee before his pending two years' tour of Australia and England ends, but an extra charge of pianistic vigor or energy will hardly be necessary. His tour had enough power and force back of it last night at Orchestra Hall to meet the melodious requirements of at least two pianists for a score of years.

He plays extraordinarily well, though in writing of him one might say, "he is the same fine, clear, reliable technic, the same musical phrasing, the same traditional rightness of style and interpretation that have been the attributes of so many of his colleagues this season."

His Beethoven is excellent. But one does not feel it is the last word or even the last paragraph in Beethoven playing. His Chopin has charm, a certain poesy, deftly calculated effects, but it catalogues Chopin definitely as the sentimental Tommy of music making.

When he is older we shall call him "the scholar," a splendid and sincere artist, but no reviewer in comment on him will deem it necessary to change his typewriter ribbon from calm judicious black to rhapsodic purple.

I liked him and you, if you heard him, liked him, too. And last night we did not notice any reticence in expressing our abundant approval. The audience was little, but mighty in applause demanding and receiving many encores.

**

Woman's League Musical Today

The second of a series of lectures on "Current Affairs and Literary Reviews" will be given today at 11 o'clock by Mrs. Anthony French Merrill at the Woman's Athletic club.

The Science of Government Today" will be the subject of a lecture by Mr. Morrissey at 8 o'clock today at the residence of Mrs. James H. Douglass, 40th Woodland avenue.

Mrs. Edward Morris of 4805 Drexel boulevard will open her house for a tea to be given from 4 until 6 o'clock today by the Kenwood Social Service club. Guests are asked to bring articles for which they no longer have any use. These will be sold at the Thrift shop at Fifty-eighth street and Harper avenue, maintained by the club for the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago.

Among the patrollers for the ball of the Chicago Lying-In Hospital Alumni association at the Cooper-Carlton hotel tonight are the Mesdames Kellogg Fairbank, Richard T. Crane Jr., Morris L. Johnston, William R. Hall, Ernest P. Hartman, William A. Niles, Ernest French, W. H. H. Joseph Fish, Carl Meyer, Hugo Hartman, Ogden T. McClurg, William C. Ryden, Edward F. Swift, Claude G. Hopkins and Robert P. Lamont, and the Misses Mary Waller and M. E. Greenbaum.

Mrs. Jacob Baur is planning to go to Washington for the inauguration of President Harding.

**

Chicago Pastors at Methodist Meeting

Several Methodist clergymen, including Bishop Thomas Nicholson, will speak at the fourth annual meeting of the council of cities of the Methodist church in Buffalo, N. Y., today, tomorrow, and Thursday. Bishop Nicholson, the Rev. R. E. Duffendorfer, the Rev. Carl D. Gage, and the Rev. John Carl Thompson of Chicago will attend.

**

Woman's League Musical Today

The second Candlelight musical of the Woman's league will be held today in the Parrot tearoom at 108 North Dearborn street. The "Smilin' Thru" Tea shop will open tomorrow in charge of Miss Mary Bradford, the "Sandwich Lady" of the soldiers' and sailors' canteen. Mrs. Jeannette Shirra is president of the Woman's league.

**

AMUSEMENTS

BARGAIN MATINEE TODAY

Good Seats 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $2.00

AUDITORIUM at 8 Sharp

Last 4 Weeks—Last Night, Sat., March 19

F. RAY CONROCK and MORRIS GEST PRESENT

MECCA

The Most Gorgeous and Most Sensational Musical Show

Ever Brought to Chicago

100 PASSION-FIRED DANCERS IN THE MARVELOUS AND WORLD'S MOST SENSATIONAL BACCHANAL STAGED BY THE GREAT FOKINE. ELEVEN SCENES OF UNPARALLELED BEAUTY. COMPANY OF 400 SINGERS, DANCERS, PLAYERS.

ALL

COMBINING IN ONE GREAT AND COLOSSAL THEATRICAL ATTRACTION, THE WONDER SHOW OF THE AGE.

POSITIVELY THE BIGGEST and MOST SENSATIONAL PRODUCTION EVER PUT ON ANY STAGE in the HISTORY of the WORLD.

BARGAIN MATINEE TOMORROW AND SATURDAY, 50c TO $2.00

Coming March 22—Sensational Aphrodite

WASHINGON SOCIETY

GEO. M. COHAN'S PRODUCTION OF THE MYSTERY MASTERPIECE

The Tavern

"Rattling Good Humor—Curious and Delightful Uproar at COHAN'S GRAND!"

Amy Leslie in the Daily News.

HOLIDAY MATINEE TODAY

REGULAR WEDNESDAY MAT. TOMOR.

**

POWERS' NIGHT EXCUSE $2.50

A. L. ERLANGER and HARRY J. POWERS PRESENT

Holiday Matinee Today SEATS $2

COLONIAL TONIGHT

ENTERTAINMENT

LAST TWO WEEKS

ZIEGFELD FOLLIES

SEATS NOW ON SALE FOR ALL REMAINING PERFORMANCES

**

SHAVINGS

TRAGEDY OF JOSEPH'S NOVEL WID HARRY BEEFORD PRESENT

STUDEBAKER // MATINEE TODAY

EXTRA HOLIDAY MATINEE TODAY

COGNAC

In a Comedy by James Forbes

BRANCH BOX OFFICE, GARRICK BLDG.

4TH IRENE

MOVES TO STUDEBAKER MARCH 6

EXTRA HOLIDAY MATINEE TODAY

BLACKSTONE LAST 2 WEEKS

WITH OLIVE TELL and including Tom Powers

BRANCH BOX OFFICE, GARRICK BLDG.

HENRY MILLER

BLANCHE BATES

In a Comedy by James Forbes

THE FAMOUS MRS. FAIR

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

Victoria Main, TODAY, THURS., SAT.

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

With O. P. Heggie and Belle Bennett

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

Victoria Main, TODAY, THURS., SAT.

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

With O. P. Heggie and Belle Bennett

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

Victoria Main, TODAY, THURS., SAT.

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

With O. P. Heggie and Belle Bennett

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

Victoria Main, TODAY, THURS., SAT.

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

With O. P. Heggie and Belle Bennett

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

Victoria Main, TODAY, THURS., SAT.

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

With O. P. Heggie and Belle Bennett

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

Victoria Main, TODAY, THURS., SAT.

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

With O. P. Heggie and Belle Bennett

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

Victoria Main, TODAY, THURS., SAT.

** FRIENDLY ENEMIES **

With O. P. Heggie and Belle Bennett

</div

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & CO

This Store Has Planned Many Interesting Sales For This School Holiday

A whole day to plan and to choose the new spring wardrobe. Every young school girl knows what a real joy that is.

Here all is in thorough readiness to bring a fine success to her plans. The new spring fashions are here. The February Sales are in progress. That means substantial economies. In every section concerned with the needs of youth can be noted delightful preparations in anticipation of this holiday visit.

Charming Modes in the February Sale of Misses' Taffeta Frocks, $50

There's a spring-time gaiety about these frocks that's a matter of delightful trimming and smart youthful lines. There's in one smart frock

- many frills
- basque bodice
- scalloped tunic

The basque bodice is just suited to girlish slenderness. The collar is of real filet lace. Sketched at left. This frock may be chosen in navy blue, brown, black.

Frocks of Canton Crepe with Beaded Flowers Are Interestingly Priced at $75

This is among the loveliest garnitures noted this season. It is refreshingly different and most effective in this frock. In black, navy blue or gray. Sketched at the right.

Clever New Features Mark These Misses' Spring Coats, $65

No matter how practical a coat may be, if it is in this section it is sure to have the distinction which comes from finesse in handling detail.

One sees this to a marked degree in coats of Duet du Laine in Taupe or Beaver

Two of the smartest colors. The long revers are features much in evidence in spring coat fashions, as is the heavy stitching.

Note in the sketch the out-of-the-usual way of yoke and shoulders. There's a very attractive lining in this coat of soft, charmingly patterned Pussy Willow silk.

The New Sports Coats, $20 to $65

In different lengths, priced according to fabric. One may choose these in polo cloths, tweeds, mixtures and wool jersey. Indispensable coats in a young girl's wardrobe.

Fourth Floor, South.

Misses' Tub Silk Blouses

Smartly tailored, $8.50 and $12.50

The term "tailored" does not mean severity of style in these blouses, but rather applies to the care with which they are made.

For the blouses are far more charming than merely "tailored" implies. There are

Tub Blouses, Striped and With Frills, $12.50

Of men's-wear silk in stripes of red, blue and sand with white is this blouse sketched at the left.

Others Have Long Roll Collars, $8.50

This is the sort of blouse young women are choosing for tailored suits this spring. Right.

Quaint round collars are noted in certain blouses one may have at $12.50. Not sketched.

Tiny tuckings, cleverly applied, are a smart touch in blouses, priced $5.75. Not sketched.

Fourth Floor, North.

Very Youthful New Vestees

Gay colored linens, embroidered. Crisp white piques and lovely tinted organdies. Those are the materials of which are fashioned these lovely vestees. They have the "Buster Brown" collars.

$1.25 to $3.95

First Floor, North.

New Skirts Of Silk Faille In the February Sale $16.50

Just arrived, and promised much vogue for summer. Simple lines with decorative pockets, and in charming colors—flesh, sand, gray, white, navy blue. Such are these skirts.

Skirts of crepe de Chine and Canton crepe are specially priced for this sale.

Fourth Floor, East.

Greatly Reduced in the February Sale Misses' Boots at $6.95

Certainly this is the time to buy children's shoes. For the lowest price levels of the season come with the February Sale.

Boots for misses are of excellent tan or black calfskin. They have medium width toes and practical low heels, comfortable for everyday wear. Sizes 2 1/2 to 7, at $6.95 pair.

Children's Tan Calfskin Boots

This type of shoe is one which may be wisely bought by the several pairs. For seldom are they so low priced. These are in lace style, and have broad toes.

Sizes 8 1/2 to 11

At $3.95 Pair

Sizes 11 1/2 to 2

At $4.95 Pair

Children's dress boots of patent leather with mat kidskin tops. These are lace boots and are exceptional values in this sale. Sizes 8 1/2 to 11 at $3.65, 11 1/2 to 2 at $4.65 pair.

Shoes purchased in this sale will be exchanged, but will not be accepted for credit or refund.

Third Floor, South.

This School Holiday Is the Time to Choose Girls' Tub Frocks and Top Coats

These frocks and coats are so exactly what girls want nowadays in the matter of "style" that selection is certain to be successful. And when pricings are so decidedly moderate, it is wise to choose plentifully, and so be ready for the outdoor days not far off. Especially featured are

Gingham and Chambray Frocks, Tailored or Ruffled, Freshened With White Organdie or Pique, at $3.50.

These are in charming colors. The materials are excellent. There is thought for frequent tubbing in the care with which they are made. Touches of hand-work give them an individual air. The styles are sketched.

The gingham frock at the right center, in blue, pink or brown check, has a collar of organdie. Sizes 6 to 14 years.

Schoolgirls' Top-Coats of Polo Cloth Are Priced $11.50. Still Others of Fine Wool Homespun Are Priced $25.

Rather boyish coats such as schoolgirls like, with big pockets, smart collars and trigly buttoned belt. At the right is sketched a polo cloth coat which may be had in blue or tan, in sizes 6, 8 and 10 years.

The homespun coat, at the left, in blue, tan and brown, is all lined with silk. Sizes 12, 14 and 16 years are priced $25.

Fourth Floor, East.

Spring Hats For Schoolgirls

A Selling—Specially Planned—of Frocks for Wee Lassies

Sizes two to six. Little frocks which, besides being very dainty, are extremely practical, too. They've been fashioned with exacting care, and so their low pricing is particularly significant.

At $3.95

Quaint touches are the collar, cuffs and sash of white batiste, and the rick-rack braid which edges the skirt tucks. Colors are charming shades of

Green, Pink, Maize, Light Blue and Copenhagen Blue

The quality of the material is notably superior—a sort which will launder successfully. So that at this pricing these little frocks are indeed exceptional.

First of the New Spring Coats and Hats to Accompany Them Are Here Now.

Many of the very lovely new coats and hats for tiny tots have come to this section. They are in styles and colors best suited to babyhood, and all are most interestingly priced.

Third Floor, North.

Mandel Brothers

Boys' and girls' outfitters

School-holiday sales

throughout the children's sections afford notable savings on apparel and accessories for immediate wear and for spring.

Featuring girls' new vogue coats of polo cloth, serge, tweed, covert, homespun, novelty plaids and checks.

$15 - 18.50 - $25

Here when spring is dawning, girls' novel, fashionable coats are quoted at figures as low as those usually seen only when the season wanes. Many are of polo cloth or velours, lined or partly lined and warm enough "for now."

Flappers' wrap-around polo coat of plaid polo cloth, with stitching; silk lined; 13 to 17. $25.

Red golf reefer coat, green flannel collar and cuffs; belted; 6 to 12 years. $15.

Full length polo coat, embroiled in self color; belt; 6 to 12 years. $18.50.

Straight-line tailored covert coat; brown velvet collar; lined; 6 to 12 years. $18.50.

Tan or blue tailored polo cloth coat, with raglan sleeves; fully lined; 6 to 12 years. $18.50.

Five out of a great number of fetching styles are sketched above.

Fourth Floor.

Boys' winter suits greatly reduced

to 10.95 - 17.95

Standard-made suits in weights suitable for now and for spring; most suits have two pairs of knickers; sizes 8 to 17, in the lot—not every size in every style. Originally $25 to $30. Other suits at proportionately large savings.

Boys' corduroy suits, 6.95—Boys' wool mackinaws, 6.95.

Second Floor.

Boys' madras, percale blouses, 78c

Excellent blouses with attached collars; in full size and fast color, 6 to 16 yrs.

Boys' and youths' shirts, special at 1.35

Of superior grade madras and fine count percale; many designs; sizes 12 to 14 1/2. 2d Floor.

Boys' flannelette pajamas, 1.95

One and two-piece styles, in fancy stripes, solid colors. Sizes 4 to 18. Popular school colors. A grade that usually sells for much more.

Boys' "Koveralls," sizes 1 to 8, 12.5. Boys' spring caps in solid colors, patterns, 1.50.

Boys' wool sweaters, special at $5

2d Floor.

Newest hats for girls, $5 to 11.75

Here in fascinating variety—hats for school girls and their older sisters—streamered milan hats, always popular, in brown, black, navy, two-tones.

Children's dress hats of silk novelty braids are gay with colorful flowers and fluttering ribbons; rose, sand, aliceberry, navy. 5th Floor.

"Madge Evans" hats—ultra smart—here exclusively in Chicago.

Children's, misses' shoes & slippers

---a factory surplus at less than cost to make

Infants' shoes in sizes 2 to 8, regularly up to $4. Children's and misses' shoes, 8 1/2 to 2, up to $6. Misses' shoes in sizes 2 1/2 to 7, regularly up to $8.

at 2.35

at 3.85

at 4.85

Included are tan, brown, black, kid and calfskin, white buckskin boots, black patent boots with dull and white tops; patent and dull pumps. Full range of sizes. 5th Floor.

Special! Felt slippers and boots, red, blue, maroon, old rose; regularly to $3, at 1.35, 1.85.

Boys', girls' school stockings, 35c

Heavy ribbed black stockings with double toe and heel; exceedingly durable. One-third saving at 35c—3 pairs for $1. 1st Floor.

Children's merc. hose, 65c—one-third underpriced

Medium weight hose in derby ribbed, light weight hose in black and white.

Boys' merc. hose at 85c—one-third underpriced

Black hose in an excellent weight, adapted for school wear; sizes 6 1/2 to 10 1/2.

Misses' Kayser silk gloves at 85c

---medium weight

—of fine quality cotton in low neck, sleeveless, ankle length style, with crocheted edge; sizes 2 to 12 at $2; 14 to 16, 2.25.

Trefousse kid gloves, 2.50

Misses' white kid gloves, pique sewn, 2-clasp style; radically reduced. 1st Floor.

Boys' union suits, 1.95

—of medium weight gray cotton; in sizes 6 to 14, 1/2 underpriced. 1st Floor.

SECTION GENERAL MARKETS, V

HEITLER "FIX" IN BOOZE C AGAIN A MYS

Gindich Not "Be New Witnesses

Morris Gindich, the devious witness, whom government witnesses identified last week as the mysterious "fixer" in the $200,000 Heitler whisky

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1921.

*** 15

HEITLER "FIXER"
IN BOOZE COUP
AGAIN A MYSTERY

Gindich Not "Bergson,"
New Witnesses Say.

Morris Gindich, the dealer in sacramental wines, whom government witnesses identified last week as Max Bergson, the mysterious "fixer" in the $200,000 Heitler whisky conspiracy, wore a smile in the federal court yesterday for the first time since the trial opened before Judge Evans a week ago.

Two witnesses called by the government took a long look at the stocky figure of Gindich, ordered him to remove his tortoise shell glasses, looked again, and shook their heads.

"He is not the man," they said.

Previously witnesses from Peoria had pointed out Gindich as the man who had reconsigned the booze car from Peoria to Gresham station here. The witnesses yesterday said the Max Bergson they saw at Gresham when the liquor car was unloaded was a tall, thin man, weighing less than 100 pounds. The Peoria Bergson was described as a stocky individual of medium height, weighing approximately 185 pounds.

Although attorneys for the defense were optimistic, Assistant District Attorney James R. Glass declared he would clear up the affair today when "Mossy" Joy, the government's "ace" witness, is called to the stand.

Government "Fixer" Named.

First direct evidence that the government "fixer" was present when the Heitler car was unloaded last October was presented when John F. Turner, chief clerk of the freight department of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, was put on the stand. He said that William Gorman, nephew of President Gorman of the Rock Island lines, had come to his office in the presence of a government officer and ordered him to have the car released.

"What happened at that time?" Turner was asked by Mr. Glass.

"Gorman told me that the permit was OK."

"Did he introduce the government man?"

Brother of "Packey" McFarland.

"Yes. He said the man's name was McFarland, a brother of 'Packey' McFarland, the pugilist."

"What was the government man?" Attorney Glass asked.

"He said it was all right to allow the car to be unloaded. I said if Gorman said it was all right to unload the car that was good enough for me."

Assistant District Attorney John J. Kelly said the two brothers of the former pugilist, who were in government service when the Heitler deal was framed, would be questioned by the government.

McFarland up to a month ago was employed in the office of Frank D. Richardson, federal dry chief. He resigned. The other brother is an internal revenue agent.

Harry Frank Tells of Paying $13,000.

Harry Frank, brother of Micky Frank, who Saturday identified Heitler, Mannie Greenburg and Robert Pearman as the chief conspirators in the whisky coup, took the stand yesterday.

"Did you pay $13,000 to these men?" asked Attorney Glass.

"Yes. I paid it to Heitler at Pearson's saloon on Wells and Washington streets."

"Who was with you?"

"Louis Greenberg."

"Did you get the whisky?"

"Yes."

"We went to Eighty-seventh street and Vincennes avenue on the appointed night. When we arrived Greenburg was there. He ordered them to give us 100 cases when he saw our truck."

"Then what happened?"

Describe Holdup.

"We were held up at Forty-ninth and South State street by four men in an automobile. They covered us with guns and ordered us out of the truck. We got off."

"What did you do then?"

"We went back to the car in search of Heitler."

"Did you find him?"

"Yes. He and Pearman were together. We told them what had happened."

"What did he say?"

"Well, if you had been held up by robbers or government men, we'd give you our money back."

Frank said that when he arrived at the car the Mr. Max Joy and another saloonkeeper were there complaining that their trucks had been held up.

Wife "Older, More Versed in Ways of World"; Sues

Dr. Allen H. Ferguson alleges in a will for divorce filed yesterday that Mrs. Lillian R. Ferguson is "older and more versed in the ways of the world" than he and that married life is no longer tolerable.

He accuses Mrs. Ferguson, who resides at 1461 Lake Park avenue, of keeping clocks, vases, other bric-a-brac, and clubs in his head, and asserts that at times she has compelled him to take refuge in his office, doors locked and windows barred, to safeguard his life. Dr. and Mrs. Ferguson were married January 18, 1911, and separated November 27, 1917.

Dartmouth's Hermit Is a "Real College Joke"

Members of the Chicago Dartmouth Alumni association held their annual banquet last night at the Dartmouth Hotel. The principal speaker was J. A. Stone of Chicago, a member of the class of 1903, who impersonated the 93 year old hermit philosopher Gamaliel Fristoe, who since 1865 has been living in seclusion in the New Hampshire woods as a result of a quarrel with Darwin over the missing link." The hermit was a "real college joke" on the alumnae and the public, who had been told through the press about the "strange philosopher."

'Cognac' Is the Small Beer of Reminiscence

BY PERCY HAMMOND.
T HE world is cold, 'tis said, to tales of doughboy miseries. A noble art of occupations is that of the dreamy ex-crusader, and the narration of martial reminiscences evoked in the bosom of a soldier's "velvet friends" emotions dimmed. Furled is the flag and mutts is the drum. Buddy, his comrade, has lost his job, and our interests in the Argonne are gone. Withered, if I may say so, are the garlands of the war, and the hero's pole has fallen.

All of which is preface to a notice of "Cognac," performed last night at the Shubert Stakehouse for the first time in a big town. "Cognac," I suspect, is tardy by at least a year, and although it endeavors to illuminate an unworn and possible fear in the aftermath of battle it is, I fear, too unpunctual for hospitable appreciation. It is none too good, in any event, being rather an ingenuous juxtaposition of "Way Down East" and the Odeon, or an awkward blending of the austere "I Swan" drama with explicable and innocent unashamedness of the south of France. A Vermont folks tale with bobbed hair and a bowtie.

So it is possible that we do not react, we should react, to the situation of Elmer Stubbs, a knight of the New England countryside, who, in Boreaux, moseys and falls off Mills. Marcelle Dupont (Miss Olive Mills), a rounded frequent dame, is a bore, though he knows that not. Her lips are warm and crimson; her hair is brief, blonde, curly, and sprightly, and she has that "something" to be habitual in the women of France. Elmer marries her, removes her to Vermont, and she takes her life happily on the Stubbs farm with a religious father-in-law named Eli, plying the broom and the frying-pan with great success.

Whole Corn Bell Gives.

This gift corn day was the first of eight planned in the county. The cobs did not go out until last Saturday, mosey and falls off Mills. The farmer was asked to give off a whole of corn for every acre planted last year. The second gift corn day will be held during the next two weeks at Minonk, Benson, Roanoke, Metamora, Secor, Washburn, and Goodfield.

Sixteen car loads of corn all told will be given by Woodford county, basing the estimate on the number of bushels donated.

Similar days will be held throughout the corn belt. Indiana farmers will begin to load gift corn at Vandalia today. Iowa farmers will start loading this week. As soon as a sufficient number of cars are loaded they will be assembled into trains and started for the seaboard and Europe.

All of the Illinois corn, which is being handled under direction of Howard Leonard, president of the state farm bureau, will be milled in the United States and sent to Poland and the starving children in central Europe.

Total Is 5,000,000 Bushels.

A total of 5,000,000 bushels will be given by American farmers—1,000,000 bushels, milled, will be distributed by Hoover's soup relief committee; 1,500,000 bushels, milled, and 500,000 shelled, will go to the Red Cross; 1,000,000 shelled, to China, and 1,000,000, milled to European countries through a Cattin relief commission.

Of course she is recognized then by Earl Watkins, the village rat, as "Cognac," the hot lipped and inhosable curb lady who bilked him in Boreaux out of 50 francs. When Earl demands that she kess him lest he expose her as a bought woman. Whereupon she seizes a convenient hand grenade and threatens to explode it, him, and her if he does not cease his carnal importunities. She is good girl now, and she love only Elmaire.

After Elmaire has been dismissed by Elmaire Eli, and some other Stubbs, and she has appeared in the last act, wearing the pretty exit cape of renunciation, the scene changes, and she is taken back. You feel sure that she will be good girl now, and that in Elmaire's arms she will forget ze Cog D'Or, ze mercenary kees, ze liaison, and ze rendezvous.

"Did you pay $13,000 to these men?" asked Attorney Glass.

"Yes. I paid it to Heitler at Pearson's saloon on Wells and Washington streets."

"Who was with you?"

"Louis Greenberg."

"Did you get the whisky?"

"Yes."

"We went to Eighty-seventh street and Vincennes avenue on the appointed night. When we arrived Greenburg was there. He ordered them to give us 100 cases when he saw our truck."

"Then what happened?"

Describe Holdup.

"We were held up at Forty-ninth and South State street by four men in an automobile. They covered us with guns and ordered us out of the truck. We got off."

"What did you do then?"

"We went back to the car in search of Heitler."

"Did you find him?"

"Yes. He and Pearman were together. We told them what had happened."

"What did he say?"

"Well, if you had been held up by robbers or government men, we'd give you our money back."

Frank said that when he arrived at the car the Mr. Max Joy and another saloonkeeper were there complaining that their trucks had been held up.

Wife "Older, More Versed in Ways of World"; Sues

Dr. Allen H. Ferguson alleges in a will for divorce filed yesterday that Mrs. Lillian R. Ferguson is "older and more versed in the ways of the world" than he and that married life is no longer tolerable.

He accuses Mrs. Ferguson, who resides at 1461 Lake Park avenue, of keeping clocks, vases, other bric-a-brac, and clubs in his head, and asserts that at times she has compelled him to take refuge in his office, doors locked and windows barred, to safeguard his life. Dr. and Mrs. Ferguson were married January 18, 1911, and separated November 27, 1917.

Dartmouth's Hermit Is a "Real College Joke"

Members of the Chicago Dartmouth Alumni association held their annual banquet last night at the Dartmouth Hotel. The principal speaker was J. A. Stone of Chicago, a member of the class of 1903, who impersonated the 93 year old hermit philosopher Gamaliel Fristoe, who since 1865 has been living in seclusion in the New Hampshire woods as a result of a quarrel with Darwin over the missing link." The hermit was a "real college joke" on the alumnae and the public, who had been told through the press about the "strange philosopher."

ILLINOIS STARTS
FREE CORN TO LANDS OF HUNGER

1,500 Eurekans Help to Handle 72 Wagons.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

With all the spirit of an old fashioned husking bee, Illinois farmers turned up their shirt sleeves yesterday and started the first gift corn rolling toward Europe's starving children. Seventy-two heaping wagons rumbled into Eureka bright and early in the morning from all parts of Woodford county.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

Frank Shamborg and Ed Lehman donated the shellers. Frank Feltner, president of the Woodford county farm bureau, brought his tractor from the farm to run the shellers. The cobs were sold from $1 to $5 a bushel and the money will be used to buy more gift corn. Some farmers were not able to bring their corn in and 500 bushels more will be loaded today.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

Frank Shamborg and Ed Lehman donated the shellers. Frank Feltner, president of the Woodford county farm bureau, brought his tractor from the farm to run the shellers. The cobs were sold from $1 to $5 a bushel and the money will be used to buy more gift corn. Some farmers were not able to bring their corn in and 500 bushels more will be loaded today.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

It was like a circus day. Practically every one of the 1,500 Eurekans turned out to help load the 2,600 bushels of corn brought in by the farmers. Two corn shellers were kept humming, while twelve men kept a constant stream of corn running into the grain wagons and to the elevator, where it was run into cars. Two cars were loaded.

HARDING FAVORS PAYNE - ALDRICH TARIFF, REPORT

Temporary Bill Pending Final Legislation.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT]
Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—[Special]—As a result of indications that President Elect Harding will favor re-enactment of the Payne-Aldrich law, with some modifications, at the beginning of the special session of congress, Representative Fordney, Michigan, chairman, house ways and means committee, made known today a change in the program for tariff and tax revision.

Mr. Fordney, just back from a conference with the president elect of Florida, announced that his committee will not begin the writing of any part of the tariff bill until after March 4. The plan had been to start this week on the preparation of permanent legislation.

Program for New Bill

Immediately after March 4, Mr. Fordney said, further conferences will be held with Mr. Harding to decide definitely whether a temporary tariff law shall be enacted in advance of final revision. If Mr. Harding approves, the committee will begin work on a temporary tariff bill.

This bill will be ready for introduction when the special session convenes early in April. It will be rushed through the house and presumably the senate Republican leaders will have agreed to expedite its progress in the senate. Final enactment into law would be expected before the end of April.

Three Amendments O. K'd.

Attempts of the house and senate conference committee to add three temporary tariff bills to the Fordney emergency tariff today were successful with respect to four amendments, but three others, all of which were added by the senate, were passed over until another meeting tomorrow.

The amendments included a tariff of 30 cents a bushel on flaxseed; exemption of 10 cents a bushel on canned goods; a tariff of 2 cents a pound on lemons, 2 cents a pound on fresh and frozen meats, and exemption of imported live stock for breeding purposes.

Cops Hop Speeding Auto to Arrest Two Suspects

Leaving on a moving automobile, two policemen in uniform, Captain Harry Mortell, 25, of 1801 South Sangamon street, and Frank Stienker, 22, of 4745 North St. Louis avenue, as members of the bandit gang that engaged in a revolver battle last Monday in which Miss Anna Sharon, 228 South Spaulding avenue, a bystander, was shot. Four men fired a score of bullets at the two, in which Samuel Levine and three friends were chasing them. Levine had recognized them as a gang that had robbed him a few days before.

Investigate

Get an expert to give you advice as to the proper handling of your heating equipment and tell you how to burn Solvay Coke, and whether it is adapted for your requirements.

It will pay you to get this information for you can not only save money but also secure an economical, clean, and adaptable fuel suitable for all seasons of the year.

Chicago Solvay Coke
"The Fuel Without a Fault"

The Solvay trade is spreading rapidly. New consumers are finding this fuel every day, because they have been told by their neighbors that it is better than anthracite and cheaper—goes farther ton for ton.

Egg and No. 1 Nut Sizes
$14.00 Per Ton
No. 2 Nut Size
$10.20 Per Ton
Sidewalk Delivery in Chicago
Order from your dealer or TELEPHONE
Wabash
6201

PICKARD, BROWN & COMPANY
General Sales Agents
532 South Michigan Avenue

BANK OF KINDNESS

Draw a Check on It for the Unfortunate.

RAILROADS AND PRESENT LAW GET SENATE RIPPING

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—[Special]—The Cummins-Essex railroad act was attacked in the senate today, but without efforts to amend it.

The whole rail situation was brought into debate when the senate took up the Winslow bill to authorize the interstate commerce commission to authorize partial payments of the $600,000 railroad deficit which the government guaranteed under the Cummins-Essex bill.

Senator Kirby of Arkansas, Democrat, declared the government guarantee of 1 1/2 per cent had "removed the discretion of the interstate commerce commission and had destroyed the right of the public to demand fair and reasonable rates." He proposed an amendment to eliminate the guarantee clause, but it was beaten by a vote of 59 to 14.

Senator Trammell of Florida wanted to reduce the guarantee return to 3 per cent. The bill was voted 60 to 7. Another amendment of 4 per cent was beaten by a viva voce vote.

Senator La Follette denounced the Cummins-Essex bill as a "failure" and a "crime." He proposed an amendment requiring an auditing of the railroads' accounts. Senator King of Utah also assailed the bill and predicted a "nation-wide railroad catastrophe."

TAKES POISON AFTER QUARREL

Mrs. Oelia Sinke, 23, of 171 North Carpenter street, took poison yesterday and is in a critical condition. She is the widow of a former member of the mountains of Durango for lost buried there years ago by leaders of bandits. Travelers here from Torreon say that Villa, with a considerable body of men, is scouring the mountains for many miles in search of these mysterious caches.

SOFT DRINKS AND JAZZ FOR SHIPS ON THE PACIFIC

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—[Special]—The Cummins-Essex railroad act was attacked in the senate today, but without efforts to amend it.

The whole rail situation was brought into debate when the senate took up the Winslow bill to authorize the interstate commerce commission to authorize partial payments of the $600,000 railroad deficit which the government guaranteed under the Cummins-Essex bill.

Senator Kirby of Arkansas, Democrat, declared the government guarantee of 1 1/2 per cent had "removed the discretion of the interstate commerce commission and had destroyed the right of the public to demand fair and reasonable rates." He proposed an amendment to eliminate the guarantee clause, but it was beaten by a vote of 59 to 14.

Senator Trammell of Florida wanted to reduce the guarantee return to 3 per cent. The bill was voted 60 to 7. Another amendment of 4 per cent was beaten by a viva voce vote.

Senator La Follette denounced the Cummins-Essex bill as a "failure" and a "crime." He proposed an amendment requiring an auditing of the railroads' accounts. Senator King of Utah also assailed the bill and predicted a "nation-wide railroad catastrophe."

TAKES POISON AFTER QUARREL

Mrs. Oelia Sinke, 23, of 171 North Carpenter street, took poison yesterday and is in a critical condition. She is the widow of a former member of the mountains of Durango for lost buried there years ago by leaders of bandits. Travelers here from Torreon say that Villa, with a considerable body of men, is scouring the mountains for many miles in search of these mysterious caches.

ILLINOISAN HAS BILL TO REPEAL DIRECT PRIMARY

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 21.—[Special]—Repeal of the direct primary system and restoration of the old convention method of nominating candidates may be carried out at this session of the general assembly. A bill for that purpose has been introduced by Rep. William Scanlan of La Salle county.

The Scanlan bill provides for a primary for the election of delegates to county conventions. All state, congressional, legislative, judicial and county candidates would be nominated by the conventions to which the county conventions would send the delegates.

The attitude the city hall organization will take toward the abolition of the direct primary is not disclosed. The Scanlan bill does not cover municipal elections. It does abolish, however, a direct vote on United States senator, governor, and all other state offices, as well as on congressmen and members of the legislature.

Conferees Strike Out Raise for Speaker, Vice President

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—The vice president and speaker of the house, as not to receive salary increases. Senate amendments to the legislative appropriation bill to increase their salaries from $12,000 to $15,000 have been stricken from the bill by the conferees. It was said Speaker Gillett opposed the increase because it applied to him alone without giving increases to other house members.

Villa Searching Hills for Buried Loot of Bandits

Mexico City, Feb. 21.—Francisco Villa, former president of Mexico, is scouring the mountains of Durango for lost buried there years ago by leaders of bandits. Travelers here from Torreon say that Villa, with a considerable body of men, is scouring the mountains for many miles in search of these mysterious caches.

2nd in National

NATIONAL Advertisers used in The New York Tribune in January more space, with one exception, than in any other New York Newspaper.

The Statistical Department of the Evening Post shows the following ranking for January, 1921—based on total volume of National Advertising carried:

First	New York Times
Second	NEW YORK TRIBUNE
Third	New York Herald
Fourth	New York American
Fifth	The Sun
Sixth	The World
Seventh	New York Journal
Eighth	The Globe
Ninth	New York Evening Post
Tenth	Evening Mail
Eleventh	The Evening World
Twelfth	Evening Telegram

Readers of The New York Tribune know they "can purchase merchandise advertised in The Tribune with absolute safety—for if dissatisfaction results in any case The Tribune guarantees to pay your money back upon request."

National Advertisers are turning more to newspapers. They have put The Tribune second on their New York list because they know that its Guaranty Policy has resulted in creating an audience of extraordinary responsiveness.

Time after time this responsiveness has been demonstrated. For instance:

—12,024 men and women in the year 1920 asked the advice of our Investment Department on investing their surplus funds—ranging up to $150,000.

—last Spring more than 7,000 Tribune readers sent in Planks to aid in building a Republican political platform.

—over 4,600 Tribune readers contributed a total of over $70,000 to send more than 9,000 boys and girls to the country for a two weeks' vacation. This is an average contribution of over $15.00 each.

This proves that Tribune readers are quick to respond to appeals in The Tribune and that they have large purchasing power—4,600 contributed an average of over $15 each to a vacation fund. Over 12,000 went on record as having surplus funds for investment up to $150,000.

You can reach some Tribune readers through other Newspapers but you can reach all Tribune readers only through The New York Tribune.

The Better the Neighborhood—the Bigger the Tribune Circulation

New York Tribune

First to Last—the Truth—News—Editorials—Advertisements

U. S. G. WELSH
Western Representative

5 N. Wabash Avenue, Chicago
Telephone Dearborn 1436

GRAINS ADV WHEAT SUP SHOW DEC

BY CHARLES D. M.
Grain values responded better buying. While they were not held until the were net gains of 1 1/2% on corn, 1/2% on oats on rye. A large part of a favorable development the only thing to disconnect local buying was the outside buying.

Wheat supplies are steady and the visible is down to compared with $3,356,000 loss of 714,000 bu was made week, compared with 1,836,000 bu wheat and flour.

Local operators were good, while the selling was times, especially on the flour traders who were against the close was at 15 1/2% under an advance of 3%. At the up to $1,73% and May 1/2%.

Corn visible Reduces were given the a decrease of 697,000 bu in the only more than a month increase. Price at the 25% for May with 715/8% selling came less interests, while buying was done.

On the bulge offerings in the market's action created that much of the effect in stocks had been done.

Outs attracted little after advance of nearly 1%, a from the top, and a close at Cash bids for rye were nothing was done. In fact the business was in spread rye and wheat.

Provisions Have Advanced
Provisions advanced and best of the day, with up 7 1/2%, and short ribs 2 1/2%, not large. Cash trade was with offerings light. Export bacon for the week was against 21,767,000 last year.

Feb. 21
High. 11.85
Low. 11.61
Last. 11.61
May ..... 12.05 11.85 12.05
July ..... 12.45 12.35 12.45
Sales. 11.85
Mar. ..... 11.25 11.00 11.22
July ..... 11.57 11.37 11.37
*Holiday.

GRAIN STATISTICS
United States visible supply increased 714,000 bu last week, bu, rye 137,000 bu and barley 100,000 bu. Oats increased 1,836,000 bu last week. Price was Wheat ..... 28.56 29.56 29.56
Corn ..... 28.56 29.56 29.56
Oats ..... 34.48 35.00 34.37
Rye ..... 2.02 2.02 2.15
Barley ..... 2.74 2.74 2.74
Wheat stocks in all 2,794,000 bu last week. Decreased 697,000 bu last week. Corn stocks increased 150,000 bu and rye 8,000 bu. Follow, last three ciphers on Public Private Total. Wheat, bu. 631,000 631,000 631,000 Corn, 8,259 8,000 11,260,000 Oats, 3,272 9,396 12,268,000 Rye, 242 343 343 Barley, 82 242 343 American exports are well, although late. Details as large as late. The week last week. Wheat, bu. 4,780,000 232,000 4,780,000 Corn, bu. 1,155,000 1,241,000 Oats, ..... 818,000 732,000 Rye, ..... 799,00 732,00 Barley, ..... 239,000 239,000 Pot, ..... 63,000 63,000 Lard, 108,13,089,000 14,878,000 Meats, lbs. 0,036,000 18,360,000

MORE CALL FOR

Another inquiry existed for kinds, with a firm market and buyers are anxious to their supplies. As far as as no trading is expected. Arrived to 1/2,000 bu, No. 3 timothy, 1/2,000 bu, No. 2 timothy, and only 1/2,000 bu, No. 1 timothy. Alfalfa ranged at $10,000-$12,000 fresh arrivals. Receipts of grass, 1/2,000 bu, No. 1 timothy, $15,000-$18,000. Nebraska, Iowa 13,000,000-$17,000. Illinois, 13,000,000-$17,000. Straw, secured with only 2,000,000-$15,000-$15,000. Oats, $12,000-$13,000.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fi

Doesn't hurt a bit! Dig "Freezene" on an aching instantly that corn stops then shortly you lift it with fingers. Truly! Your druggist sells a tin of "Freezene" for a few cents to remove every hard corn, or corn between the and the calluses, without or irritation.

THE EDWARD WESLEY
Cincinnati, Ohio.

MARQUETTE CEMENT MANUFACTURING COMPANY

EXPORT BUYING NEW FACTOR FOR CATTLE, SHEEP

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

Prices of live stock at Chicago yesterday were:

	High.	Low.	Clos.
Bulk of sales	8 7/8	8 50	8 7/8

CATTLE

	High.	Low.	Clos.
Prime steers, 1,000-1,100 lbs.	8 3/4	8 1/2	8 3/4
Poor to choice, 1,000-1,100 lbs.	8 00	8 00	8 00
Poor to good, 1,000-1,100 lbs.	6 5/8	6 5/8	6 5/8
Canning and inferior steers...	6 5/8	6 5/8	6 5/8
Yearlings, 700-800 lbs.	8 00	8 00	8 00
Fat cows and heifers...	4 5/8	4 5/8	4 5/8
Steers and feeders...	4 7/8	5 00	5 00
Poor to fancy calves...	2 5/8	2 5/8	2 5/8

LAMB

	High.	Low.	Clos.
Native lambs, all grades...	7 5/8	8 00	7 5/8
Lambs, poor to best culs...	7 00	7 00	7 00
White, poor to best culs...	5 5/8	5 5/8	5 5/8
Ewes, fat to best...	3 00	3 00	3 00
Bucks...	2 5/8	2 5/8	2 5/8

Local hog supplies were beyond expectations, Chicago receiving half the 112,000 credit to the seven leading western markets. Notwithstanding the liberal offerings, opened strong at Saturday's best time. After urgent local and outside orders were filled business was at a peak to 10c lower basis.

Shippers, small packers, and yards traders purchased freely from the start, while most of the large local houses held off until late in the session, when they purchased their droves below the 39 mark. The price range was not narrowed in a move with the top at $9.75 standing the day of the day's average at $9.15 and only 10c lower than a week ago.

Quality of Hogs Improved. The day's general average price was 15c higher than Saturday, due to the improved quality, there being fewer combs, non-underweights among the arrivals. A year ago the average was $14.25 and two years ago $17.64. It was two years ago this month that the government fixed the maximum price at $14.50 for hams at $1.45c for packing drivers. The price fixing arrangement ended with that month. It was in July of 1919 that the record top of $23.60 was paid. Recently tops sold at $19.75, but most traders are counting on an upturn in the near future.

While fat cattle sold steady to 25c lower yesterday, the trade in stockers and feeders was largely at 26c in advance, with the market showing a slight gain in grades of steers due to the increased orders from the country. The best fat steers offered sold at $10.15, while feeders went as high as $8.50, the narrowest spread in many months.

Exporters recently bought some cattle and about 2,000 sheep and lambs, which were consigned to Scotland. This factor, with prospects of a better eastern trade, promised to help the general cattle trade as well as the lamb market.

Lamb Sharply Higher.

Trade in lambs yesterday showed more life, with sales 250c above last week's close. Top lambs sold at $10.25, the highest price paid here about three weeks. Some 112 in weathers sold at $6.50 and 10c lb ewes at $6. Feeding lambs were quoted at $6.50/7.75.

Seven western markets reported 45,000 sheep, 15,000 lambs, and 50,000 hogs, and 30,000 sheep the previous Monday and 30,000 sheep the next Monday and 54,000 cattle, 10,000 hogs, and 54,000 sheep year ago.

Receipts for today are estimated at 6,000 cattle, 35,000 hogs, and 16,000 sheep, against 15,296 cattle, 34,992 hogs, and 18,565 sheep at Chicago the corresponding Tuesday a year ago.

Yesterday's Hot Purchases.

Hog purchases yesterday by Chicago packers and others follow:

Armour & Co., 4,100 Miller, 1 Hart, 1,400

Armour & Co., 2,000 P. Co., 1,000

Swift & Co., 4,400 Herman P. Co., 1,000

Hammond Co., 3,000 Wm. Davies, 1,000

Wm. Davies, 1,000 Others, 2,000

Wm. Davies, 3,000 Shippers, 1,000

Boyd-Luhman, 2,200

Western P. Co., 4,300 Total, 10,000

Robert & Goss, 2,500 Left, over 1,000

LIVE STOCK MOVEMENTS AT CHICAGO.

Receipts—Cattle, Calves, Hogs, Sheep.

Est. Feb. 21... 16,000 3,000 25,000

Last wk... 44,825 13,108 199 838 96,631

Year to date... 100,000 25,000 35,000

Year ago... 50,965 10,615 103,478 69,649

Two yrs ago... 68,972 10,371 244,488 58,408

Est. Feb. 21... 5,000 300 12,000 4,000

Last week... 19,500 1,272 47,855 38,798

Prev. week... 21,639 1,427 49,619 20,533

Year ago... 17,980 992 48,909 15,053

Two yrs ago... 18,014 548 44,448 12,131

BOSTON STOCK TRANSACTIONS

MINING.

Almack... 55 50 48 48 48

Almack... 13 33 38 38 38

Almack Co... 10 10 10 10 10

Cal & Metal... 23 25 25 25 25

Cal & Metal... 97 100 100 100 100

Quincy... 25 30 30 30 30

Senses... 15 17 17 17 17

Superior & Ross... 60 24 24 24 24

Trinity... 400 360 360 360 360

U.S. Steel... 200 200 200 200 200

Utah Copper... 70 51 51 51 51

Utah Metals... 100 100 100 100 100

Victoria... 100 100 100 100 100

RAILROADS.

Beth. Elv... 2 63/4 63/4 63/4 63/4

Beth. & M... 15 28 23 23 23

Beth. & M. & H... 100 100 100 100 100

West End... 61 42 42 42 42

MISCELLANEOUS.

Am. & Co... 18 80 80 80 80

Am. & Co... 200 200 200 200 200

Am. & Co... 100 100 100 100 100

Am. & Co...

INVESTORS IN 50 INDUSTRIES JUMP 22% TO 868,183

The New York and Chicago stock exchanges, the Chicago Board of Trade, the banks, commodity exchanges, and financial institutions generally will be closed today, Washington's birthday anniversary.

That the United States is rapidly becoming a nation of stockholders might well be argued in looking over the ever lengthening list of holders of securities. The increase in these "partners" of big business always has been a noticeable accompaniment of American industrial expansion, but never has it been so marked as in the last two or three years.

Stocks are most popular largely because it is considered there are the greater possibilities of profit.

Good stocks are becoming more widely distributed every year. In 1919 the aggregate of stockholders of fifty prominent industrial companies shown on the books Jan. 1 or the nearest available date was 643,882. On or about Jan. 1, 1920, the number had risen to 712,929, an increase of 11 per cent, and on Jan. 1, 1921, to 868,183, an increase of 22 per cent, or nearly twice the gain of the year before.

K. M. Montgomery Ward Increases.

Stockholders of Montgomery Ward & Co., the Chicago mail order house, at the annual meeting yesterday approved the directors' proposal to increase the common stock from $1,000,000 to $1,285,000 shares of par value, the additional shares to be exchanged for one of the existing 35,000 shares of class B stock.

The charter at present provides that the class B shares shall receive three times any dividend paid on the common stock and three times as much in any distribution of assets.

W. E. Wood. Lamont president of the American Steel Foundries company, was elected a director, pending to the already strong Chicago representation on the directors. Other directors and officers were reelected. R. E. Wood was appointed vice president in charge of merchandising; Andrew Young, vice president in charge of operating; F. J. Camphausen, assistant secretary and treasurer; A. M. Fenholow, general auditor; F. R. Richardson, general manager of factories.

45% Armour Stock Dividend.

Declaration of what amounts to a 50 per cent stock dividend on the old $100,000 outstanding common stock was announced yesterday by Armour & Co., the Chicago packing concern. The dividend was declared in December and is explained in the following statement:

The realization of Armour & Co., including the reclassification of its common stock into class A and class B shares, as announced by the company last July, has been authorized. Of such authorized new stock there has been issued $50,000,000 par value class A and $50,000,000 par value class B stock to the old stockholders in exchange for the $100,000,000 par value common stock held by them. According to the plan, it was to be followed by the declaration of a 50 per cent stock dividend, payable in class B stock. This, however, has been only partially carried out by the declaration of the payment of a 50 per cent class B stock dividend to such stockholders in December, further action in respect thereto having been postponed by the directors owing to conditions affecting the industry during the latter part of the year.

Goodyear Tire Debt at $65,964,290.

The Goodyear Tire and Rubber company has an aggregate debt of $65,964,290, according to a statement of the plan for reorganization of the company, together with the agreement entered into by the various creditors, which has just been issued by the committee having the plan in charge.

The company has present commitments for future deliveries of merchandise on which specifications and prices have been fixed, amounting to $54,959,593. In addition the company estimates materials covered by commitments have depreciated $18,247,000, which was not heretofore written off.

When the recapitalization plan is consummated there will be $85,000,000 in securities outstanding ahead of the preferred and common stock, consisting of $25,000,000 first mortgage sinking fund bonds, $25,000,000 debentures, and $30,000 prior preference stock.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Failure of the brokers of Herrick & Bennett was announced today from the rostrum of the stock exchange. Receivers later were appointed in the federal court.

Partitioning creditors with claims less than $1,000 stated the firm had made less for the benefit of Edward F. Fitzgerald, to the detriment of other creditors. The petitioners asserted known liabilities totalled $1,300,000, due banks, and known assets consisted of securities worth approximately $1,700,000.

The firm issued a statement asserting that heavy unauthorized speculation by certain employees, "coupled with their studied failure to have favored customers of theirs cover margin calls," resulted in the suspension.

That is the story of a $1,000 bond Secured 8% Note of one of the most progressive electric and gas service companies in the rapidly growing Southwest.

Net earnings applicable to the Notes nearly 3½ times requirements.

Ask for Circular CT 65

H. M. Byllesby & Co.

Investment Securities

208 S. La Salle Street

Chicago

PROVIDENCE

BOSTON

NEW YORK

NEW YORK STOCK TRANSACTIONS

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE: TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1921.

Net Feb. 14. Sales. High. Low. Close.

</div

TABLET & TICKET BUYS OLD PLANT OF SHOTWELL CO.

BY AL CHASE.

With the removal of the Shotwell Manufacturing company, makers of pop corn confections, to its new plant at 3501 West Potomac avenue, its former home at 624 West Adams street, a three story building, has been sold, together with the nine and a half year leasehold, to the Tablet and Ticket company for $100,000. This was taken by the president of the company, Adolph Stiehmann. The property has 50,000 square feet of floor space. J. H. Van Hilsingen & Co. and J. P. Strickland & Co. were the brokers.

Ninety hundred dollars a front foot, or $9,000,000, was the asking price and about $1,000,000 was paid for the midsize jewelry shop in the Hartford building, at 55 West Madison street, with only ten feet of frontage. The store is thirty-eight feet deep, which means the tenant, Henry H. Epstein, will pay $24.65 per square foot annual rental, according to J. Soule Webster, representing the Mole Hotel company, owners of the building.

Mr. Epstein, 42, is president of the Mole Hotel. The company had a lease, which still had one year to run, calling for $5,000 per annum. This has been canceled and a new lease running five years from May 1, 1921, at $8,000 has been made. The lessor will spend around $10,000 in remodeling the shop.

Maj. Fredric McLaughlin doesn't mind a flood of new business, but he has closed his windows on one side of a dozen of Illinois Central eiectors on the other side, his new apartment in the old McLaughlin coffee house, overlooking the new plaza at the south end of the boulevard bridge, ought to be a corker. He'll get a new view of Bou Mich and the Wrigley building

that's worth seeing.

The old warehouse is being remodeled by Hubbard & Roche into shops on the first floor, and on the second, and

Maj. McLaughlin's apartment de luxe on the third. It will have seven rooms and will be set in ten feet behind a pillars loggia with an iron balustrade. Although Maj. McLaughlin will move in on May 1, it will not be a permanent home, as ultimately the building will be converted into a residence.

The addition is to cost $60,000.

John J. Thomas, president of the Lloyd-Thomas company, appraisers, has purchased from Henry Fiel the ten room brick residence at 925 Michigan avenue,

Wilmette, for $100,000, for a reported

$60,000, through McGuire & Orr.

Building Permits

Two building permits were issued yesterday, including a four story United States Bank building at 120 W. Adams street; A. E. Achler, arch.; H. E. Egan, eng.; cost, $700,000.

For Sale—3000 sq. ft. two story house, 11th and Clark, $20,000.

For Sale—Albion, two story brick warehouse, Ryan Bunting brick, Ebenhaut & Jorgenson, cost, $40,000.

For Sale—Albion, two story brick flake, H. Van Voren owner and builder, cost, $10,000.

For Sale—Brick, W. W. Nugent owner, Bonner, Pierce & Hauber, arch.; A. E. Johnson, mason and carp., $10,000.

Crude Oil Keeps Up Price Cutting Pace

Pittsburgh, Feb. 21.—The principal purchasing companies today announced a further reduction, ranging from 15 to 50 cents, in the price of crude oil.

The quoted price of the oil, the day before yesterday's table of records shows: Ohio—Cloudy and warmer Tuesday; Wednesday; rain; colder Wednesday; Friday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Lower Michigan—Unsettled weather Tuesday and snow; probably rain or snow; some what warm. Tues., coldest Wednesday; fresh southeast and south shifting to west winds Wednesday.

Upper Michigan—Snow Tuesday and Wednesday; much colder Wednesday.

Wisconsin—Snow Tuesday or Tuesday night; Wednesday unsettled and cold.

OFFICIAL WEATHER FORECAST.

The official forecast for today and tomorow and yesterday's table of records shows:

Ohio—Cloudy and warmer Tuesday; Wednesday; rain; colder in west portion.

Indiana—Cloudy and warmer Tuesday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Unsettled weather Tuesday

and snow; probably rain or snow; some what warm. Tues., coldest Wednesday; fresh southeast and south shifting to west winds Wednesday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Snow Tuesday and Wednesday.

Wednesday snow; Tues., coldest Wednesday; fresh southeast and south shifting to west winds Wednesday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Illinois—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Wisconsin—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

Michigan—Cloudy and warmer Tues., coldest

Wednesday; rain; cold Thursday.

Wednesday rain, turning to snow and

and colder.

WHERE DOES THE PRETTIEST GIRL LIVE?

MISS S—
Escanaba, Mich.—Clerk.
[Photo by Robbs.]MISS H—
Madison, Wis.—Nurse.
[Photo by De Longe.]MISS K—
Keokuk, Ia.—Stenographer.
[Photo by Anschutz.]MISS M—N. Lawndale-av., Chicago—Stenographer.
[Photo by Alsop.]MISS S—Moline, Ill.—Stenographer.
[Photo by Sandstrom.]MISS S—Keokuk, Ia.—Teacher.
[Photo by Anschutz.]MISS B—
Fort Wayne, Ind.—Stenographer.
[New York Studio Photo.]MISS VAN S—Hammond, Ind.—Office clerk.
[Photo by Rentachier.]MISS H—
Washington-st., Evanston, Ill.—
N. Halsted-st., Chgo.—Office work.
Teacher.MISS W—
Detroit, Mich.—Clerk.MISS P—Kenosha, Wis.—Bookkeeper.
[Photo by Sydney.]MISS B—
Elston-av., Chicago—Stenographer.
[Photo by Sydney.]MISS S—Elston-av., Chicago—Stenographer.
[Photo by Sydney.]MISS C—
Earl Park, Ind.—Home girl.MISS McD—
Kankakee, Ill.—Stenographer.MISS R—
E. Wash-st., Indianapolis, Ind.—
Doctor's assistant.

RE Chicago girls more beautiful than the girls living elsewhere in the central west?

There are those who, judging from photographs that have been published, say that they are.

On the other hand, there are champions of girls with addresses here, and everywhere in the five states who insist that the Chicago girls are shown to be lagging far behind when it comes to beauty.

It has been found that many followers of the contest are studying the printed photographs daily for the purpose of making comparison between Chicago girls and other girls of the section.

G. J. is backing Milwaukee as the city which will furnish the most beautiful girl in the central west. "There are," he says, "more beautiful girls to be seen in an hour in Milwaukee than there are to be seen in Chicago all winter."

THE TRIBUNE's beauty contest is being conducted for the purpose of finding where the most beautiful girl in the central west lives. It is a quest for locating the sixty most beautiful girls in the section; $20,000 will be given away in making the search.

Ten thousand dollars will be awarded to the most beautiful girl of all when she is found. In addition ten prizes will be distributed in each of the six territorial divisions—the city of Chicago, the state of Illinois outside of Chicago, the state of Indiana, the state of Iowa, the state of Wisconsin, and the state of Michigan.

The first prize in each of these divisions will be $1,000, the second $250, the third $100, and the remaining seven $50 each.

The grand prize winner will receive not only $10,000 in cash but also one of the sixty territorial prizes.

The contest is open to every girl, unmarried or a widow, who resides anywhere in the five states, except professional beauties.

Select a photograph of yourself or some girl friend and write plainly on the back of it the name, street address, and occupation of the entrant.

Send the photograph to "Beauty Contest," CHICAGO TRIBUNE, 7 South Dearborn street, Chicago.

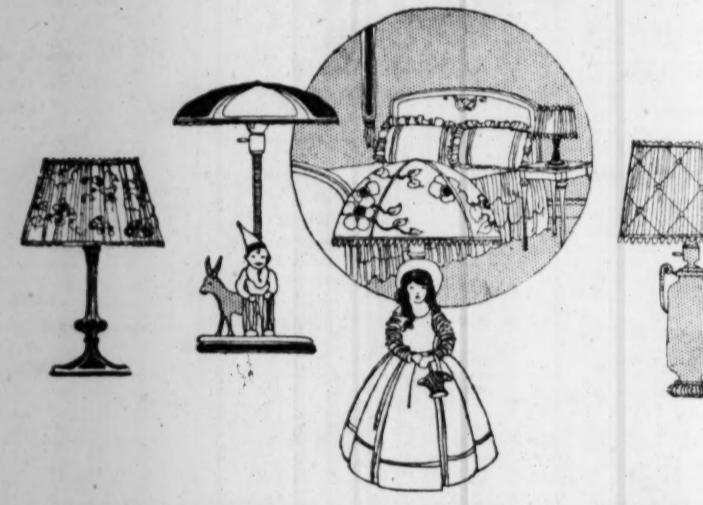

Photographs will be published in THE TRIBUNE daily and in the rotogravure section on Sunday until the close of the contest.

The contest closes on April 9.

Photographs will not be returned unless accompanied by a stamped and self-addressed envelope of proper size.

Do you know a possible prize winner? Her photograph should be sent in as soon as possible.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT &amp; CO

A Very Special Selling of These Lamps for the Boudoir

Or for the Nursery, Also Shades to Harmonize

This selling brings an opportunity to select a lamp perhaps long wished for, at a pricing much less than one expects for such lamps as these. There are charming designs to choose from, including those delightful figure lamps—"dainty maid" and "clown and donkey." There are also

Small Luster Vase Bases, and Artistic Lamps in Ivory, Bronze and Shell Tints

The shades are of silk or parchment and have been especially made to harmonize with the lamps. In colors and styles they are unusually lovely.

Lamp Bases Are Priced From $3 to $9.50
Shades Are Priced From $2 to $7.50

Fifth Floor, North.

"The Shop of Personal Service"

F.N. Matthews Co.
Outfitters to Women
21 East Madison Street Between State and Wabash

ANNUAL CLEAN-UP

Closing out our entire stock of women's and misses' winter apparel. Featured among the bargains are

Wraps & Coats

of Caledonia, Saxonia, Silverite, Velour de Laine, Chamoistyn and Goldtone, Plush and Velour du Nord. Many trimmed in Beaver, Siberian Squirrel, Australian Opossum, Nutria, Seal and Ringtail. All sizes. Values up to $149.50

SUITS

To clear every suit in the house, untrimmed as well as fur trimmed, many tailored suits suitable for spring wear included, we have placed them in three lots. Values to $125.

DRESSES

Every Fall and Winter Frock in the house of tricotine, charmeuse, satin, georgette and velvet, styled for all occasions. Values up to $95.

$49.50 $59.50 $65

$39.75 $49.75

$26.75 $46.75

A complete showing of Matthews' new Spring $39.50 to $175

F. N. MATTHEWS & CO., 21 East Madison Street

MANDEL BROTHERS

Announcing a remarkable sale of Silver coffee sets

4 pieces—quadruple plated

Elegant sets of white Britannia metal in platinum finish
—the sort that add desired "tone" to distinctive tables:

$13

Set consists of coffee pot, sugar bowl, creamer, and waste: 4 pieces for $13: Tray to match, $4.

First floor.

EDUCATIONAL

EDUCATIONAL

TECHNICAL COURSES FOR YOUNG MEN

Evening classes in the following subjects are now forming:

Mechanical Drafting
Architectural Drafting Machine Drafting
Structural Drawing
Structural Designing
Plan Reading and Estimating
Applied Electricity Illuminating Engineering
Industrial Chemistry
Slide Rule
Steam Engines and Plants
Wireless Telegraphy
Show Card Writing

Free Scholarships Are Available for ex-Service Men

YMCA Technical School
Central 6789
19 S. La Salle St., CHICAGO

Write, phone or call at once

SPEAKING POWER
Learn Formal Speech Fluency, Poise, Courtesy
For Law, Medical, Dental, Pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for public health and dental examinations; for teaching; for business, law, and other examinations; for law, medical, dental, pharmacy, and other professional schools; for entrance examinations and universities; for business, law, and other examinations; for